OH, BURY ME UNDER THE CLOVER.

B A L L A D.

Words and Music by

Mrs. AGNES E. MITCHELL.

Andante cantabile.

VOICE.

PIANO.

1. Oh,
2. Not

bu - ry me un - der the clo - - ver, The red and white blossoms I tears that are tokens of sor - - row, But tears that drive sor - row a - love; And where the dear rob - in and wild - - bird, Build way, As rain drops but make the sky clear - - er, That in the green branches a - bove Come sing in the glow of the fall on the blossoms of May And oh, in the midst of your eve - - ning, The old songs we once loved to sing Come dream - ing, As white clouds on summers' soft blue Let tell me you love me and miss me, And weep o'er the flowers you thoughts of the home I have gone to, Be wafted from glo-ry to bring . . .

you

3. Sweet-heart, I will list to your sing - ing, And oh, let it never be sad, For though I speak ne - ver a whis - - per, My soul will be peaceful and glad. . . . , And though I lie un - der the clo - ver; The blossoms I love, white and red. . . . , My feet will tread heavenly hill - tops, And darling, I shall not be dead.
