SONG AND REFRAIN.

Words and Music by E. F. MORSE.

Moderato.

Piano introduction in 6/8 time, featuring a treble and bass staff with chords and melodic lines.

1. Kind friends, your at - ten - tion, I'll sing you a song, I hope you'll ex - cuse if I in the right place. There was Gen - er - al Grant, a ve - ry smart man, Says in the right place. There was poor mar - tyred Lin - coln, so ten - der and kind, His

The right men in the right place.

"T WILL ALL COME OUT IN THE WASH." By ROSENFELD. Sung by Tony Hart. Price 40 cents.

REFRAIN.

So go where you will, or where you may be, You'll find it is al-ways the case, Where one man is right, there's a doz-en that's wrong, But I'll name just a few who were in the right place.

And there is Ben Butler, just beat him who can,
He is cunning and able to talk and to plan ;
When he's in the Court he is sure of his case,
For he's the right man and in the right place.
And if you want muscle and plenty of "sand,"
I'll show you the one who stands first in the land,
For Sullivan dares the best fighters to face,
For he's the right man and in the right place.

May the memory of Lincoln and Garfield and Grant,
Whose love for our country no treason could daunt,
Be sculptured in marble no time can efface,
For these were the right men who filled the right place.
May the flag of our Union so noble and grand,
In triumph and peace ever wave o'er our land ;
America's sons all her foes dare to face,
For they are the right men and in the right place.
