know it is far from my sight. Oh the touch of your hand, your ca - shadowed with clouds dark and drear. And per-haps you too are lone-ly wear in my breast ev - er - more. And no part - ing shall come to us ress - es, Words of mine can-not tell how I miss, So I heart - ed, As you think of the lost hours of bliss, If you ev - er, Nor a pleas - ure of life will we miss, For our dream of your dear face and tresses, With a ray of sweet com-fort in this.
are, then for each hour we're parted, Let your heart find some comfort in this.
love all the world cannot sev-er, So be hap - py in think-ing of this.
