Man - y years a - go a sea - man and a maid Be - Wear - y years have fled and fad - ed now the eyes That

- side a moss - grown gateway stood And tend - er words betrayed. The once with life and hope and love Were bright as sun - mer skies. Still pain that part-ing gives To fond hearts leal and true "For - watch-es she and waits BY the crumbl'ng gate each day And

- get me not" She eries while tears be-dim her eyes of blue, un - til life and all is o'er She'll wait and watch a-way.

Recit.
