NO ROSE WITHOUT A THORN.

Wm. T. ROGERS.

1. While stray - ing thro' life's val - ley, Though in our childhood's morn, We find where'er we
 2. And when the sun of mid-day Beams brighter o'er our head, We find no thorn - less
 3. And when a - down the val - ley Our trembling feet must stray, Tho' the crown of ro - ses wan - der, No rose with-out a thorn. Though sweet may be the fra - grance They ro - ses Where'er our steps are led; But still we fond - ly cher - ish The with - er, The thorns are there al - way. But when we cross the riv - er, And fling a - round our feet, We find a - mid life's ro - ses The bit - ter with the sweet.

 rose - bud's fa - ding leaf, Tho' we know the thorn en - dures, While the rose's bloom is brief.
 reach the long'd-for shore, We'll dwell 'mid fade - less ro - ses, Where nought can harm us more.

CHORUS.
