Moderato.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand. The vocal line is in a soprano or alto range, with lyrics written below the notes.

Some day, sweetheart, you will look back To these old days a - gain, Through years that blot life's fad-ed dreams With floods of sun and rain, And you will hear my voice once more Like some wild songs re - frain, From

◁ FAMILY ❖ PRAYERS ▷

Poem by HOWARD SAXBY, Music by A. J. BOEX. 50 cts.

Somehow or other I don't know how,
Everything seems so altered now,
And tonight I am thinking, I don't know why,
But I'd give a great deal for an old fashioned cry,
My lamp seems to show by its flickering light
The face of my father as slowly I write,
When he said as the daylight had gone with its cares,
Don't go to bed without saying your prayers.
