“Pi - per Sec!” “Pi - per Sec!” Is the swell wine of the day!.....

ffr D.S.

Spoken after 2d Verse.— My boy, I've tried them all, and I speak from experience. None of your wishy-washy, bilge water wines for me! When I ask a friend, I can tell immediately he's a man of taste, when he prefers no other brand but “Piper Sec,” &c.

3.

Oh, “Piper Heidsieck” is superb!
There is no doubt of that;
One sip— and every other brand
You'll say is dull and flat!
But for a man of taste and ton,
The wine to sweep the deck
Is “Piper Heidsieck's” royal twin,
The glorious “Piper Sec!”

Spoken after 3d verse.— When a fellow's in the dumps, got the blues, or a bad mother-in-law, then he needs a friend. Let him search the wide world over, there never was a friend like “Piper Sec!” &c.

The prince of all the famous brands,
The acme of delight!
The best of friends to have on hand
Whene'er we “fly by night!”
With “Piper Heidsieck” side by side,
The banquet hall to deck,—
Give others what they please,—give me
The glorious “Piper Sec!”

Spoken after 4th Verse.— “Piper Heidsieck” and its renowned pal, “Piper Sec!” Where is their equal? Only a toss up between the two. Both, par excellence, the wines of the world. Here, John, bring me a bottle of “Piper Sec!”

ENCORE VERSES.

If all the rivers ran to wine,—
And every lake and sea,
I know the brand that I should choose,
This wealth of wine to be:
Tho' some might “Piper Heidsieck” say,
Their wish I would not check;
But as a man of taste I'd choose
Immortal “Piper Sec!”

CHORUS.

Then let the busy world spin round,
And stocks go up or down,—
A friend have I, in bright champagne,
To banish every frown!
Oh, merry-hearted still I'll be,
And follow Fortune's beck,
And still I'll drink, while glasses clink,—
The glorious “Piper Sec!”

CHORUS.
