(Till ready ad lib.)

Pan was quite a man, back in the a - ges, And some boy in histry's pa - ges, Oh, he was a shepherd king,

Back, in Ar - ca - dy_ he was a win - ner, And of rag - time the be - gin - ner; When his reed pipe he would bring,

Oh, all_ the country crowned him when he would play.

They all_ would get a - round him to hear his lay.

played ————— that music man! ————— And when he played on his pipe, All the an - i - mals came round too see, His lit - tle reed seemed to feed them up on mel - o - dy.

On his reed when he'd lead, Most ev - ry one would start a danc - ing;

Oh, that ragtime Shepherd King! His pipe he'd bring and make it sing — most an-y - thing; He played the rag in a clas-si - cal way, He was some rag-pick-er back in his day, When he played up - on — the — rag-time pipe of Pan. —

REFRAIN

I could go home to a girlie like you, I won't stay out—

— if the boys ask me to, There'll be no po-ker, games or drinks with the men, It will be me for home at quar-ter of ten—

— You need-nt' phose all a round, I'll be sit-ting right there,—
