A GLORIOUS DAY IS DAWNING.

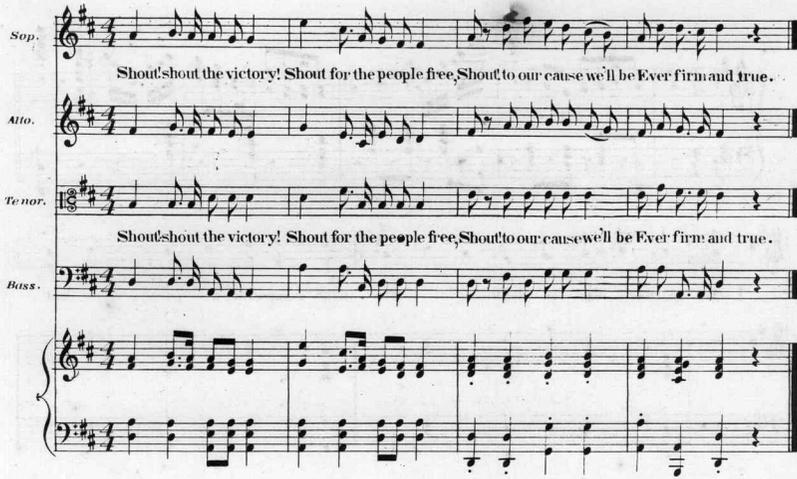

Words and Music by

Two Temperance Woman.

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. It begins with a piano introduction in the right hand, featuring a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, and a bass line with chords. The vocal line enters with the lyrics: "1. A glorious day is daw-ning, The light comes on a - pace, And some folks that I have in mind, Are getting in disgrace, They cannot keep their spirits up To get 'old spir-its' down, Be-cause the good old Temperance cause, Is ringing thro' the town." The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody.

1. A glorious day is daw-ning, The light comes on a - pace, And some folks that I have in mind, Are getting in disgrace, They cannot keep their spirits up To get 'old spir-its' down, Be-cause the good old Temperance cause, Is ringing thro' the town .

CHORUS.

Sop. Shout! shout the victory! Shout for the people free, Shout to our cause we'll be Ever firm and true.

Alto. Shout! shout the victory! Shout for the people free, Shout to our cause we'll be Ever firm and true.

Tenor. Shout! shout the victory! Shout for the people free, Shout to our cause we'll be Ever firm and true.

Bass. Shout! shout the victory! Shout for the people free, Shout to our cause we'll be Ever firm and true.

The old and young are all agog,
 And people far and near,
 Are turning from the deadly cup,
 And take their "water clear":
 The homes are brighter, hearts more glad,
 And every thing looks new,
 And all seem happy but — well no
 Of course looks very blue. Chorus.

3.

Come one, come all, and join the band,
 Our Leader never fails,
 We'll reach the shores of triumph yet,
 Through all opposing gales.
 Look up! look up! turn not again,
 For Satan follows near,
 O'er-whelmed with disappointed rage,
 But we have naught to fear. Chorus.
