HOW TO PLAY THE PIANO.

LATEST AND BEST METHOD BOOKS.

MANN'S NEW METHOD.

Price, board, $2.50. Either American or Foreign fingering, as desired. Embodies all the latest improvements in teaching, is written expressly for the use of beginners, and is certain to make good performers of all who follow its precepts.

Mann's method is comprehensive, systematic and progressive, and secures to the student the best position of the hand, correct and rapid execution, ability to read music at sight, and lightens the labors of the teacher.

All knowledge of and proficiency in an art is based upon a proper understanding of the elementary principles which underlie and govern the same. Whenever their acquisition has been neglected or imperfectly attended to, a faulty and hesitating manner (style) will inevitably manifest itself.

Mann's Piano Method imparts to the learner a solid foundation.

GETZE'S NEW METHOD FOR THE PIANO. PRICE, BOARD, $2.75.

Written expressly to meet the requirements of all classes of learners, and amply provided with full and clear explanations, followed by illustrative examples, recreations and amusements in progressive order, rendering it suitable for pupils of any age.

THE MODERN SCHOOL OF PIANO TECHNIQUE.

By Alois F. Lejeal.

Price, PART ONE, $2.00. Price, PART TWO, $1.50. Price, PART THREE, $1.50. Price, COMPLETE BOARDS, 4.00

This is the most systematic, practical and exhaustive work of its kind ever published, completing, as it does, all the means necessary to insure a perfect mastery of the instrument. The entire work comprises 150 engraved copper plates, and is issued in flexible cloth binding.

It has been the aim of the author to make this work as complete as patient research and careful study could make it, omitting nothing which could serve to promote mechanical proficiency. Every chapter treats of a distinct class of exercises, and is arranged in progressive order.

The firm respectfully invites the attention of Teachers and the Trade to the following excellent publications:

Weitzman's Manual of Musical Theory.

Price, $2.75. A concise, comprehensive and practical text-book, which is used and recommended by the principal teachers.

The Scales and How to Practice Them. By A. M. PUPIN. Price, Board, 30c.

This work is the experience of many years in teaching, and has been written in the hope of lessening the drudgery of imparting and acquiring a knowledge of the Scales by making the study of them interesting.

Tiepke's Musical Writing Book. TWO VOLUMES. Price, 25c. each.

The sheets are so arranged that they can be easily separated, so that the teacher may give out one at a time. The teacher will determine the order of the exercises and whether each one shall be done wholly or in part.

Improved Musical Catechism. By H. BULLOCK. Price, 30c.

Teachers will be pleased to find in this admirable work all that is valuable in Jousse's, Burrow's and other books with which they are familiar, together with much that is new and desirable.

This valuable catechism presents the subject of music in the easiest, most intelligible and attractive form. The exercises, while simple, are thorough, and materially aid the pupil in reading music at sight.
