"Rollicking Dollie Day."

OR THE GAYEST GIRL IN TOWN.

(HUMOROUS SONG.)

Words by ROSELINDA.

Music by C. A. WHITE

Author of "The Farmer and his Boys," "The Farmer and his Girls," two popular quartets.

Allegretto.

To be sung jolly.

1 I'm the gay - est girl in town, That's what the peo - ple say, Be -
2. Some - times a - lone I walk Up - on the vil - lage green, To
3. Though Rol - lick - ing Dol - lie Day, I'm al - ways just the same, I

- cause I laugh and sing To drive dull care a - way. Old hear the peo - ple talk, And see what can be - sen, And Per-laugh and chat with all, Pray tell me where's the blame!

la - dies shake their heads, And on the sly they say, "She'll if per - chance I meet, Some cav - a - lier so gay, It's
 - laps some nice young man, That's got a win - ning way, May come to no good end, For she is much 'oo gay."

 sure to go the rounds, "He's sweet on Dol - lie Day."
 ask to change my name From Rol-lick - ing Dol - lie Day.

Drive, hoop, fence, dance, Use the bow, the spear, the lance, the lance,..... I'm the gay - est girl in town, My home is o'er the way, The vil - lage peo - ple here, All call me fly - a - way. I'm al - ways full of fun, Of wrong, no one can say, My heart is light and free, I'm Rol - lick - ing Dol - lie Day.

mf

f

To be repeated until next verse is begun
