ORDER OF THE BUFFALO

HEADQUARTERS
17th INFANTRY
APO 7

THE OFFICERS AND MEN OF THE SEVENTEENTH INFANTRY REGIMENT

TO ALL WHO SHALL SEE THESE PRESENTS, GREETINGS:

Know Ye, that in consideration for the friendly attitude and general helpfulness of Mr. Danny Kaye toward us during the conflict in Korea;

We have elected and do appoint him a GUARDSMAN in the ORDER OF THE BUFFALO, to rank as such from the 8 th day of November Nineteen Hundred and Fifty - one

He is therefore considered a Proven Friend of the SEVENTEENTH INFANTRY (BUFFALO) REGIMENT and is to be accorded all of the Amenities and Courtesies to which a Comrade and Brother-In-Arms is entitled.

Done this 8 th Day of November in the One Hundred Fortieth year of the Buffalo Regiment

Hal D. McCown

HAL D. McCOWN
Leader of the Herd

HEADQUARTERS
17th INFANTRY
APO 7

8 November 1951
In the 140th year of the 17th
Infantry (Buffalo) Regiment

SPECIFIC ORDERS
NUMBER 12

1. HONORARY BUFFALO - By direction of the Regimental Commander, under the provisions of Special Buffalo Regulations, approved 29 January 1951, and pursuant to authority vested in Lieutenant Colonel Hal D. McCown, the following named individual is appointed an "Honorary Buffalo."

2. MR. DANNY KAYE, world renowned comedian and actor, who has distinguished himself as an entertainer without peer and a sincere friend of the combat soldier. His visit to the 17th Infantry (Buffalo) Regiment this date, demonstrates anew his willingness to give whole heartedly of his time and talents for the happiness and well-being of his fellow man. His appearance and the fine performances of the other members of his troupe will be long remembered and appreciated by the men of this Regiment.

BY ORDER OF LIEUTENANT COLONEL HAL D. McCOWN:

Thomas J. Sherlock

THOMAS J. SHERLOCK
Major, Infantry
Adjutant