SONGS

GIRL WITH PAINT ON HER FACE

She is lovely and gay
And she steals hearts away
With her unexplainable grace.
And how happy I'd be—
If I just could be she—
The Girl with the Paint on her Face.
Oh she wins every man
When she does the can-can
In fragment of slightly used lace.
She's witty and pretty—The Gal of this ditty—
The Girl with the Paint on her Face!

DO THE GYM-FLYM

Do the Gym-flym
It's the new whim
First you must point your toe
Don't let your ankle show
Do the Gym-flym
Keep your hips slim
Walk up and turn about
Waist in and bustle out.
Shrug your shoulders in the daring
new eclat way,
Then get bolder, shake your head in this or that way.
Shake a trim limb
Do the gym-flym
You'll never hear 23—Skidoo.

IT'S A GOOD NIGHT WASTED

It's a good night wasted
With that moon in the sky.
It's a cinch you and I
Weren't meant for each other.
Haven't you got a brother?
There'll be no lips tasted
Not the tiniest spark
So what good is the dark
When there isn't any reason for it to be dark.
You're a great pal sister
And I'd go thru anything for you
But your name's not mister
So I can't adore you—
It's a good night wasted
With those swell stars above
It's a good night wasted
Cause we can't be in love.

IT MUST BE LOVE

It must be love
It must be love
This heady new sensation
A word, a glance
That spells romance
And fills me with inspiration
This thrill I feel
It must be real
And oh, so new to me, dear
Strange that just one kiss
Could change my life like this
What can it be
It must be love.
