Lauren Bacall

Sylvia dear-

It is impossible for me to believe. It is too sad - too soon - too terrible and unfair.

As you must know I always had a special feeling for Danny. Always felt a happy jolt to see him.

through all your ups + downs you had a lifetime together - a bond - and Dena - such a splendid girl -.

Every cliché you have ever heard applies - Time is the only thing that eases the pain. It doesn't ever quite go away - but eventually you can live with it. Think of the good times - the laughter - Watching Danny clips on TV the other night - I had to smile - He had such

3/

energy - vitality - grace - it was all there to see + enjoy - He left abt to remember = Hermes might.

For me Sam ushering at "Let's face it" - a birthing ego -

Be strong - you have life and friends + your daughter ahead. And great highs to remember -

Love -
Betty
