Dear Mr. Kaye:

Mr. Ormandy has told me of your very gracious and generous offer to perform for the Philadelphia Orchestra this season. Naturally, we were very interested and pleased in accepting your very kind offer but, alas and alack, when we tried to find a place to fit such a concert into our schedule at the Academy of Music, we just could not find an available date.

We certainly hope for a "rain check". We also wonder if, in the future, you might consider performing at Robin Hood Dell, Philadelphia's summer-concert facility, which seats over 10,000. It seems to me this would be a much more meaningful location for a tremendous crowd for, as you probably know, we are limited to just under 3,000 capacity at the Academy of Music. At any rate, many, many thanks again, and all of us are very grateful to you for your generosity.

The Maestro joins me in sending you greetings.

Sincerely,

Manager
