RECOMMENDED BY THE PARENTS LEAGUE

"EILEEN," Shubert Theatre, 44th Street, west of Broadway. A comic opera by Henry Blossom with music by Victor Herbert.

"Eileen" is by far the best production of the season. Theatre goers of all ages will delight in this romantic operetta by Victor Herbert, who has indeed achieved his oft expressed ambition "to write an operetta that will be a credit to the traditions of Ireland." Here we have the true Irish humor and characteristic melodies in solos, duets, madrigals and glees, sung with dash and enthusiasm, staged with picturesque and charming effects. Not since the days of Gilbert and Sullivan have writer and composer achieved such delightful results.
