Autumn Wind so Wistful

Autumn wind so wistful,
    Sighing sad and lonely,
Tell me why you sorrow,
    Tell me all your pain?—
"Sad my wings and heavy
    Bearing songs of lovers
Torn by Fate asunder,—
    Ne'er to meet again!"

Autumn wind, bear my message o'er the ocean;—
    Breathe it to the one that I prize all earth above!
Sweet as flowers, and as fixed as stars in heaven,
    Lives and burns my deathless love!

Autumn wind so weary,
    Sobbing wild and mournful,
Tell me there is comfort
    For loving hearts that yearn?
"Only this I bring thee,
    Joyless all my singing,—
One you love has vanished,
    Never will return
Far beyond the sunrise,
    Softly weep,—
Your love will ne'er return!"
