©CLE114943

DEC 27 1917

You've Gone Too Far With Uncle Sam

Patriotic Marching Song

Words and Music by Walter C. Archer, Hopewell, Virginia

You've gone too far with Uncle Sam,
Mr. Kaiser you've sealed your fate,
It's a good deal better to know your man
Than to find him out too late.
You wouldn't be good Mr. Hun when you should,
For sinking ships you have a mania,
Tho' we suffered and bore it as long as we could,
We can't forget the Lusitania.

Chorus:

You've gone too far with Uncle Sam,
Now we won't quit till we're through
We're fighting for the right,
So we'll fight with all our might,
Until there's no more fighting to do.

We're a peaceable lot, with a welcome to all,
We've made homes for your own people
too,
But our long standing friendship you
made us recall,
By the things you've had others to do.
We've treated you fair, we've trusted your rep.
We've been neutral and right on the square;
But you struck the first blow, your challenge we met,
You compelled us for war to declare.

We think of Belgium, we think of France,
And the many cruel things you have done;
To the old and the young, when you had
the chance,
But your day of reckoning will come.
We've joined the Allies and you may as well know
We're into it now to the hilt,
Our ships, guns and money, our men we will throw,
With our airships, as fast as they're built.

For a clean fight and a swift fight,
A fight for world-wide peace,
For country, honor, home and right,
That wars from now shall cease.
We'll all be true, yes every man,
No matter what befalls us,
To maintain the honor of Uncle Sam
Soldiers, sailors, join in the chorus.

We're off against the Kaiser,
The mailed fist and all such types
Ere' long they'll all be wiser
We're off with the Stars and Stripes
So good-bye friends and loved ones too,
We shall all be put to the test.
Remember we've all got our work to do
Whilst we're fighting, you do the rest.

Copyright Edition, Price 25c.

Published by

The Hopewell Publishing Company

P. O. Box 638, HOPEWELL, VIRGINIA

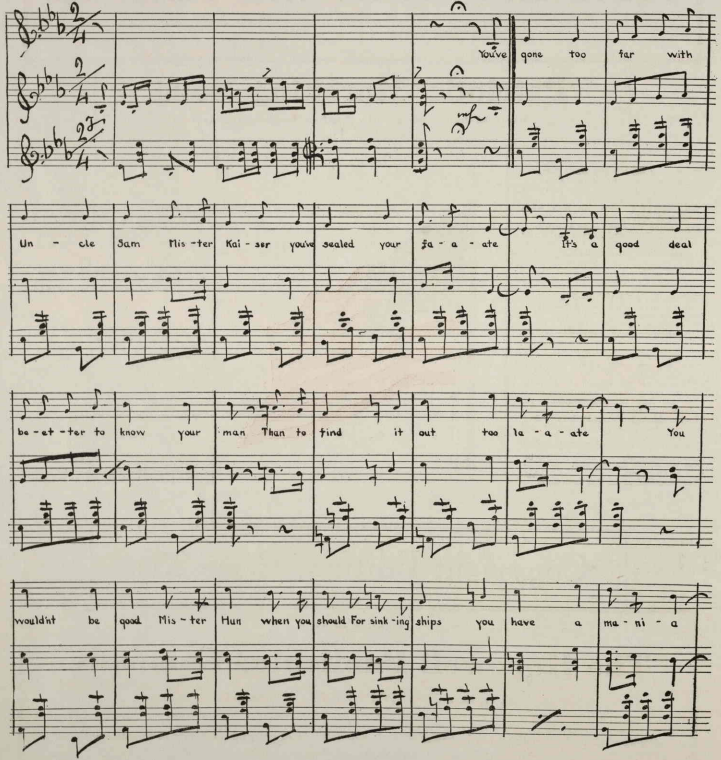
Copies of this original edition can be had at all dealers or will be sent postpaid on receipt of Twenty.five Cents.
Band and Orchestral Arrangements on application

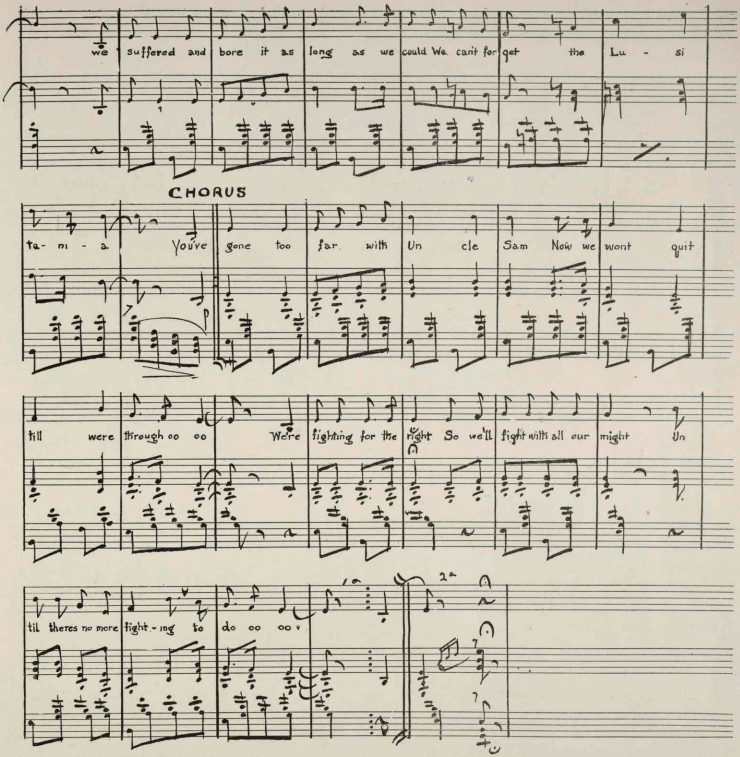
M1646
A

You've Gone Too Far With Uncle Sam

PATRIOTIC MARCHING SONG

Copyright 1917 by Walter C. Archer





We're a peaceable lot, with a welcome to all,
We've made homes for your own people too,
But our long standing friendship you made us recall,
By the things you've had others to do.
We've treated you fair, we've trusted your rep.
We've been neutral and right on the square;
But you struck the first blow, your challenge we met,
You compelled us for war to declare.

We think of Belgium, we think of France,
And the many cruel things you have done;
To the old and the young, when you had the chance,
But your day of reckoning will come.
We've joined the Allies and you may as well know
We're into it now to the hilt,
Our ships, guns and money, our men we will throw,
With our airships, as fast as they're built.

422569