

©CE#17754
MAR 15 1918

"WHEN I HEAR A BAND PLAY DIXIELAND"
(IT'S HOME SWEET HOME TO ME)

O.K.-B.F.T.

Words by
Howard Johnson

Music by Milton Ager.

I bought a phonograph the other day
I took it home and started in to play
A little record that I found inside
I got so homesick that I nearly cried
Because the tune it played was DIXIELAND
That's my home so far away
Now - when I get lonely - that's the only
Record that I ever play.

C H O R U S .

For when I hear a band play Dixieland
It sounds like home sweet home
With my sweetie hand in hand
Familiar scenes I roam
When I hear that melody - mother dear appears to me
Lawdy - but it seems to be
An angel calling - tears are falling
I can hear the humming bird - a hummin' in the tree
I love the tune - I love the word spelled D I X I E
You get a taste of honey in your mouth
When you're talkin' of the sunny ready-money south
When I hear a band play Dixieland
It's home sweet home to me.

NEW YORK - COPYRIGHT 1918 - LEO FEIST INC.,

Lead.Vineland

Handwritten musical score for 'Vineland'. The score is written on ten staves. The first staff is labeled 'Lead.' and the second staff is labeled 'Vineland'. The music is written in a single system with a treble clef and a common time signature. The notation includes various rhythmic values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The score is written in ink on aged paper.

M1646

.A

