©CLE 117427 c
FEB 25 1918 1

(Copy)

"E-Pluribus Unum" — Song —

(Dedicated To The Allied Armies)

Words and Music By Elmer W. Ace

Copyright Nov 27-1917
By Elmer W. Ace.

M1646
No. 1

E-PLURIBUS-UNUM

(Dedicated to the Allied Armies)

Words and Music By ELMER M. ACE

Allegro moderato

Introduction

All free na-tions to day are marching on their way to the bat-tle field to up-hold the right It has Countless legions will be on the land and on the sea be- neath the waves and high in the air freedom's proved the on-ly way foe cans op-pres-sion's sway with heart and hand hu-man-i-ty must fight fore- ces will see by the light of mine- ty their duety to the cause to do and dare.

The guiding star that gleams a-long the
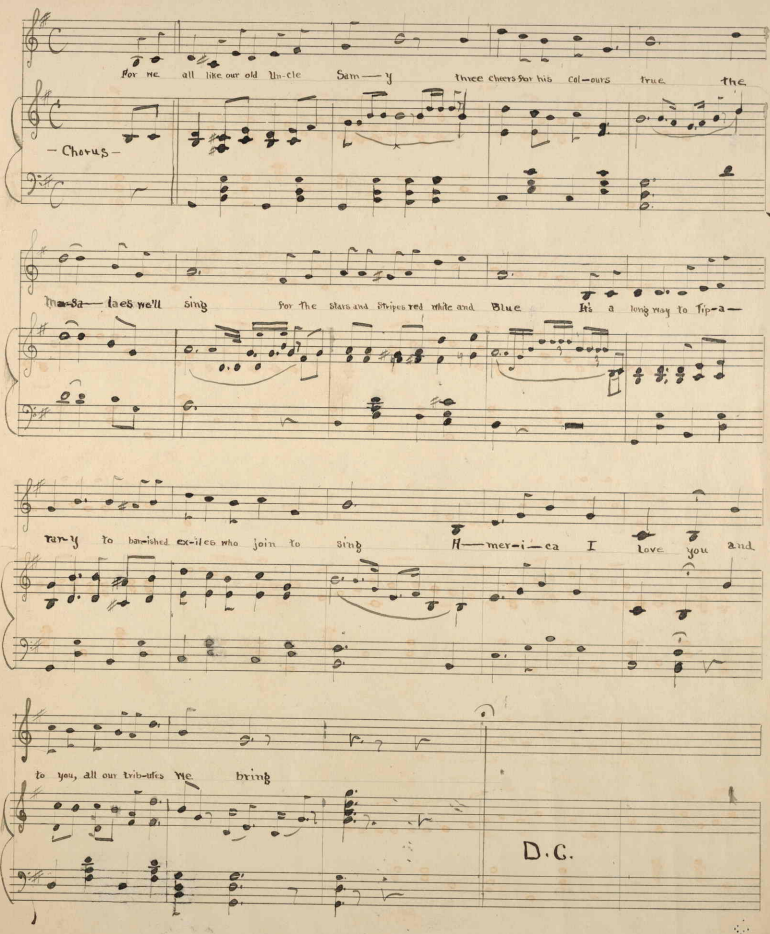
When we have won this war- veter-at-way a- cross the sea sweet from the U-S- A ran the wind of peace will be to carry- more.

Copyright NOV 1917 BY Elmer M. Ace



for me all like our old Un-cle Sam — y three cheers for his Col-ours true the
- Chorus - ma-sa- tae's we'll sing for the Stars and Stripes red white and Blue It's a long way to Tip-ara-y to ban-ished ex-iles who join to sing A — mer-i — ca I love you and to you, all our trib-utes we bring D.C.

425261