joked and laughed a-bout the fight Though watch-ing crowds were sad.
on-ly thought "My boy is gone" This smile came back to her.
Out from the train there leaned a boy To where his sweet-heart stood. As Deep in her heart she breathed a prayer Dear, Lad may your words prove true. Though Girl, good bye! Dont let me see you cry Dont even grieve for me when you get home a-gain I'm all - right.

Think of me When I'm a- cross the sea, And when I'm rit fighting o- ver there in France You must know that I've got to take my chance. But I'll be all right all right.
