©CLE418837
MAR -6 1918

LIBERTY SONG

BY

BESSIE LANE BEAN. (Morristown)

PRICE
25
CENTS

HALL-MACK CO.
PUBLISHERS
1018-20 ARCH ST.
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

M1646
.B

LIBERTY SONG

Words and Music by BESSIE LANE BEAN

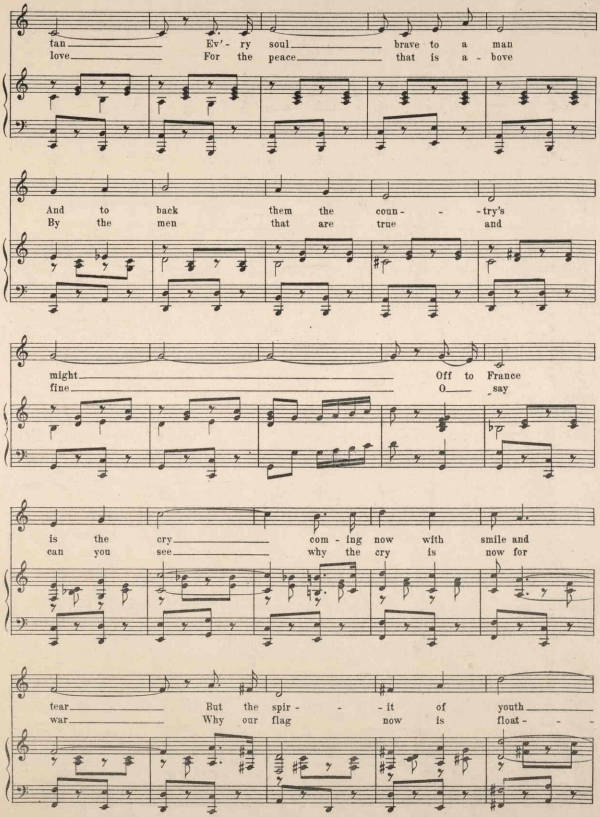
Copyright 1918 by Bessie Lane Bean



tan Ev'- ry soul brave to a man
love For the peace that is a - bove
And to back them the coun - - try's
By the men that are true and might Off to France
fine O say is the cry com - ing now with smile and can you see why the cry is now for tear But the spir - - it of youth
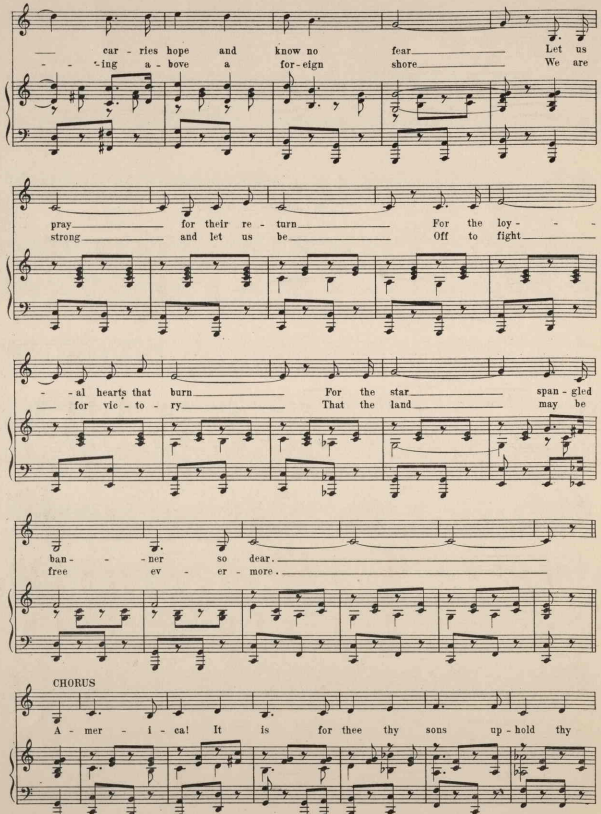
war Why our flag now is float - -



car - ries hope and know no fear Let us
- - ing a - bove a for - eign shore We are pray for their re - turn For the loy - - - strong and let us be Off to fight
- - al hearts that burn For the star span - gled
for vic - to - ry That the land may be ban - - - ner so dear.
free ev - er - more.
CHORUS
A - mer - i - ca! It is for thee thy sons up - hold thy rights Let thoughts of thy sweet lib - er - - - ty de - fend the stars and stripes Each Sam - my from the U S A pro - tect the col - ors true God give them strength to win for the dear Red, White and Blue.

426418