4. Here's to the mothers of Stars and Stripes,
As their sons as one all advance
To lick the Kaiser's vile snipes
And give freedom to all in France.

5. Here's to the sisters all brave and true,
As their brothers in a million band advance
To establish the freedom and democracy which is due
To all as well as to France.

6. Here's to the Blue and Gray as one,
As they all begin to advance
To lick the Kaiser and his son,
And may God be with them all in this chance.
