

©D.E.344478

FEB 28 1919

Hip Hip Hooray

By

THOMAS J. BICKEL

PUBLISHED BY Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

Hip Hip Hooray

THOMAS J. BICKEL

Moderato with spirit

mf p

The Yanks are in the fight to a
The Yanks snatch-ed vict'ry from the
The Yanks spel - led vic - to - ry with fin - ish, Tho' they be far a - way from home; But from the way, they've been maw of de - feat, For when they get a go - ing they can't be beat; Tho' the "red?" While soar - ing on high was a dove of white, And the ma - rines, they — tak - ing things, You would think they'd gone to stay. Tho' ev - ry moth - er would love to see her son, She Yank - ee boys have giv - en up their lives Up - on the land and sea; They were fight - ing the wore the blue, And the foe, what else could he do? But sal - ute the Red, White and Blue And bow be - bids him stay with his Un - cle Sam un - til the job's well done. 'Tis bat - tle all to - geth - er That all peo - ples may be free. The fore the sym - bol of our great na - tion, For the Yank - ees need - n't fight Un - said that the Yank - ees would - n't fight; Just men - tion the Lu - si - tan - ia and tell them to keep off the Yank - ees nev - er fight un - less they're in the right that's why they al - ways win glo - ry less they're in the right; That's why they al - ways win glo - ry for them - selves, And sea And ev'ry moth-er's son of them Will should-er a gun for the grand and glo-ri-ous U. S. A. for them - selves, And victor-y for the grand and glo-ri-ous U. S. A.

 vic - tor - y for the grand and glo-ri-ous U. S. A.

CHORUS

Hip! Hip! Hoo-ray! Hip! Hip! Hoo-ray! The Yank-ees have en-tered the fray; They've mf a tempo

turned the tide and the foe is run-ning a-way, For the Yank-ees nev-er knew the mean-ing of the word "re-treat," As the Stars and Stripes were nev-er trailed in de-feat; The Yank-ee boys up-held their Un-cle Sam's tra-di-tion, And proved they were sons of Amer-i-ca true. Hip! Hip! Hoo-ray! Hip! Hip! Hoo-ray! For the Yank-ee boys and the grand and glo-ri-ous U. S. A.

2