You Farmerettes, You Farmerettes

LESTER BLAIN

Allegretto Moderato

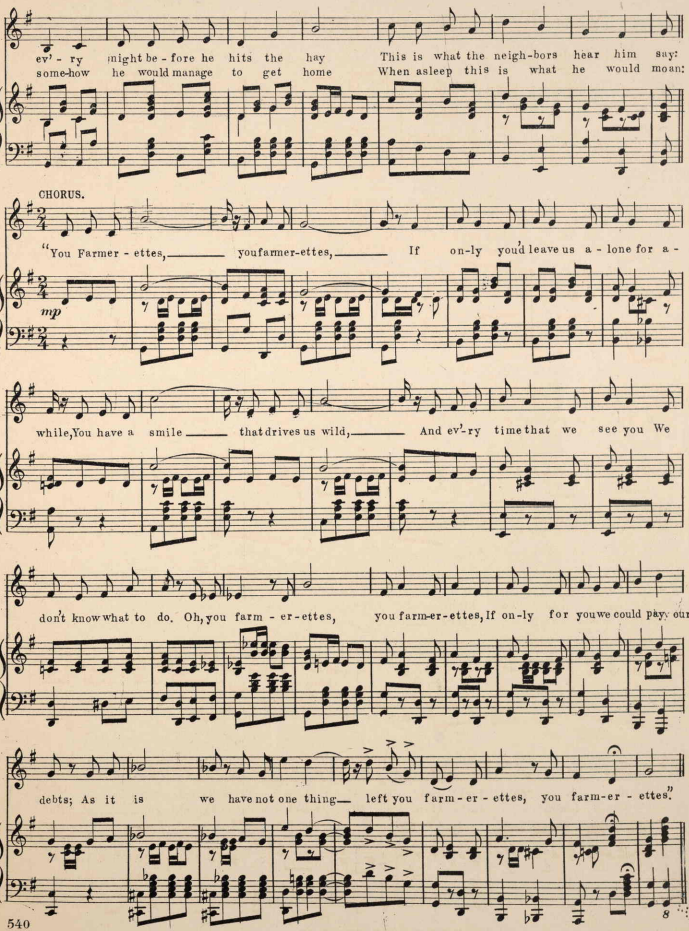
Copyright MCMXIX by LESTER BLAIN



ev'-ry night be-fore he hits the hay
This is what the neigh-bors hear him say:
some-how he would manage to get home
When asleep this is what he would moan:
CHORUS.
"You Farmer-ettes, you farmer-ettes, If on-ly you'd leave us a-lone for amp
while, You have a smile that drives us wild, And ev'-ry time that we see you We don't know what to do. Oh, you farm-er-ettes, you farm-er-ettes, If on-ly for you we could pay our debts; As it is we have not one thing— left you farm-er-ettes, you farm-er-ettes."
