

MAY 20 1918

---

---

“WEARING THE RED CROSS”

Words by T. BERRY SMITH

Music by A. D. McCAMPBELL

PRICE
50 CENTS

SEDALIA, MO.:

Published by A. W. PERRY'S SONS, Music Publishers.

---

---

"WEARING THE RED CROSS."

Words by T. BERRY SMITH.

Music by A. D. McCAMPBELL.

INTRODUCTION. Andante

VOICE

1. O what shall wom-en
2. Turn back two thou-sand
3. Since you must bear the do, when men must go to war! They may not wield the sword, or years to Cal-vry's day of gloom, Who last to leave the cross! Who cross, O wom-en ev-ry where, Come join the Red Cross hust and suf-fer wound and scar; With spir-its just as brave, as loy-al and as true, When first to reach the tomb! The cross where Ma-ry wept has nev-er lost its pow'r To Ma-ry's sor-row share, The sac-ri-fi-cial host who suf-fer loss and pain As Copyright MCMXVIII by A. D. McCampbell and T. Berry Smith.

CHORUS

men must go to war, O what shall wom-en-do? 'Twas a blood-stained cross that the com-fort those who mourn in ev-'ry fate-ful hour. did the Lord him-self, a bet-ter world to gain.

Lord Christ bare, When he died to make men free:.....And a red, red cross must the whole world wear When fight-ing for..... lib-er-ty.

Grandioso

Rit..... ff

Sua

