small. But there is one whose pur-pose to the cause is just as true, As rain. And it's a source of com-fort just to know that she is near, With those who fight and in the bat-tle fall; It's just a lit-tle wo-man and she ten-der hands to soothe each ache and pain; What would we do with-out her? Mer-cy!

wears the cap and gown. She's help-ing to re-lieve wars aw-ful curse, For where the sick and wounded lay, You will find her there each day, The faith-ful lit-tle "Red Cross" nurse:

 fraid to do and dare, For the sol-diers o-ver there, A-mer-i-ca is proud of you:

CHORUS

Nurse, nurse, faith-ful lit-tle nurse, With a red cross on your arm,

Nurse, nurse, your smile so sweet and ten-der, Lends to you an-gel-ic charm;

Smil-ing, when your pa-tient's bet-ter, Sym-pa-the-tic when they're worse, Spread-ing peace and joy, and ev'-ry sol-dier boy, Loves the lit-tle "Red Cross" nurse. nurse.
