VAMP.

Hark - en all to the
There were cold winter

sound of the fife and drum As it rolls o'er the land and sea Know ye days at Val - ley Forge And bleak were the night winds too. Sad - ly all, it's the call for us to come And fight for Lib - er - ty!

worn were those men who would not dodge, But fought for me and you.

From a - far comes the cry of bleed - ing France, To us here, in the land of the free:
Which was the friend - ly na - tion then, When all thought, our coun - try's fore - es few?

Andante cresc. Vivace

"We helped you once, Now, won't you help us save De-mo-cra-cy?"
 Ill tell you ye men That France helps save the Old, Red White and Blue."

f cresc.

CHORUS con molto sentimento

Dear Old France! Un-cle Sam he hears you call - ing.

Dear Old France! We'll be there when the snow is fall - ing. And then we'll fight side by side 'Til our vic-to-ry is won. Our love has nev-er died For La-fay-ette and Washing-ton. ton.
