MAY 26 1917
©CLE 100487

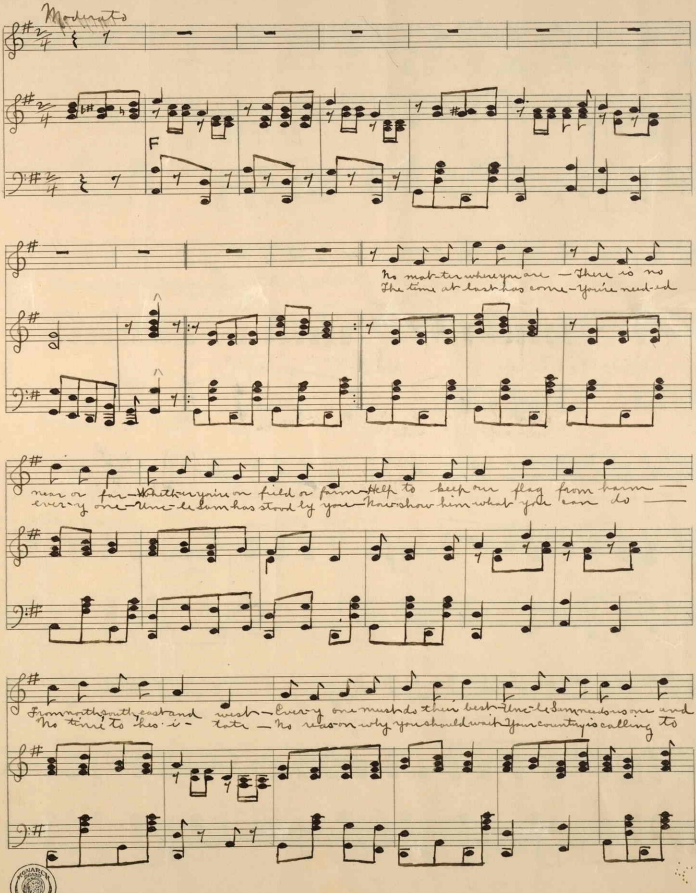
UNCLE SAM NEEDS YOU

LYRIC BY
JAC. TROP

MUSIC BY
S. MEDWEDOSKO

M1646
.M

Samuel Medwedosk
53 Harrison Ave.
Brooklyn N.Y.



Moderato
F
No matter where you are — there is no
The time at last has come — you're needed near a fire — Whether you in field or farm — help to keep our flag from harm — every one — Uncle Sam has stood by you — Now show him what you can do —
From north east, east and west — Every one must do their best — Uncle Sam needs one and No time to hes - i - tate — No reason why you should wait — Your country's calling to all — So let us rally to the call — you — The work is here for you to do —

Duty is call-ing — no we must not fail — Thrice we shall-ers wield
— that can push the flag in-to the mire — It's our best de-sire — to pro-tect and our foes plots we mean go-ing to foil — We shall be loy-al —

— like our fa-ther-ers — We do can not ex-press the thoughts for which they have fought They'll do just the same — We were not to blame — But now that we must —
— for our cause is just — Yo! you can help too — Something you can do
Be cause your Uncle Sam needs you — Duty is your

Samuel Medwedeff
53 Harrison Ave
Brooklyn N.Y.

406384