Lyric for "Sweetest 'Toinette, (Heart o' Mine).

First verse
Where cloistered forest shades the river Aisne,
My sweet 'Toinette is waiting in a lane.
The shock of battle's o'er and sunbeams shine,
And I'm going back to meet her, Heart o' Mine.
Refrain.
Heart o' Mine, buttercups are blooming on the plain.
The old cathedral bells are ringing, so sweetly on the Aisne.
When golden sun lights up at even, the clinging ivy vine,
I am coming back to greet you, sweetest 'Toinette, Heart o' Mine.
Second Verse.
Soft chimes at twilight wake the wooded plain
Where sweet 'Toinette is waiting by the Aisne.
I'm dreaming of her eyes with love ashine,
And I'm going back to meet her, Heart o' Mine.
Repeat Refrain.
