OCT 30 1918
©CLE436445

(Dedicated to Tank Corps, U. S. Army)

Why Walk to Berlin When you can Ride in a Tank?

Words by Marshall R. Hall.

Music by William Reed Mitchell.

John-ny had a fight-ing heart but yet so ten - der;
Ev - er blood-stirring fife the bat-tle fierce was rag - ing;

In him walk-ing did a feel-ing harsh en - gen - der;
Sparks and Tanks were at the fore, the foe en - gag - ing;

He wished to join the charg-ing Men on foot came up/ they
The ar-my and ev - er there to win, But John-ny could not young John-ny saw them seemed a-bout played out;

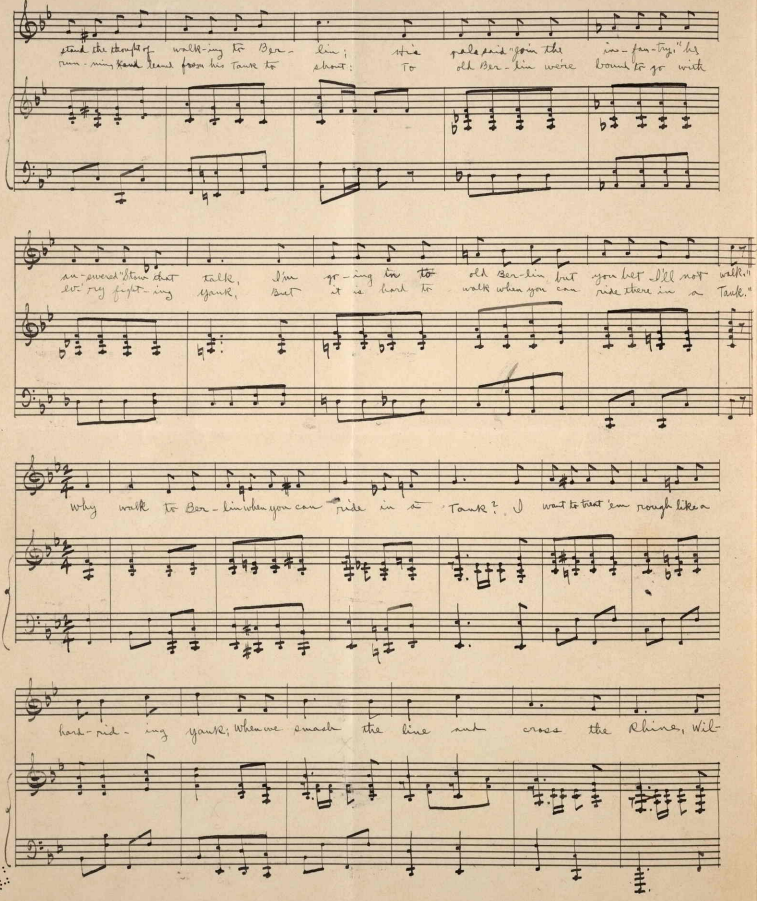
Nr. 3. — Carl Fischer, New-York.

Made in Germany.



stank the thought of walk-ing to Ber-lin;
His pals said "Join the in-fan-try," but run-ning Hand Heel from his Tank to shout:
To old Ber-lin were bound to go with an-swered "Stow that talk, I'm go-ing for to old Ber-lin but Let's sing fight-ing yank,
But it is hard to walk when you can you bet I'll not walk."
ride there in a Tank."
Why walk to Ber-lin when you can ride in a Tank? I want to fight 'em rough like a hard-rid-ing yank, When we reach the line and cross the Rhine, Wilhelm will howl and old von Hin-den whine

We will change the Hun
tam- pants, you'd bet- ter bet well win, but I'll not have to walk, but I'll get there, I'll 1
2
ride to Ber- lin. Why -lin.

44x301