NOV 20 1917
©CLE118472
Enid Morel
56 West 38th Street
New York, N. Y.

Sitting Knitting (E.M.)

~~All Day Long She Sits and Knits.~~

There's dust in all the corners,
There's mending to be done,
There are buttons off and socks all full of holes.
Poor hubby's getting thinner,
Its the automat for dinner.
Since wifey started knitting,
He's a lost and weary soul.

Chorus.

All day long she sits, and knits
For soldiers, and sailors who are fighting o'er the sea.
While hubby's shirts are ripping,
She's sitting, and knitting,
Knitting for the boys who're going to
Set our country free.
Its wristlets, socks and helmets,
Its sweaters, scarfs and caps,
She's sitting, knitting, morning, noon and night.
If he wants things done for him,
Why then, the only thing, is to
March away to war and join the fight.

M1646
.M

With knitting bag so dainty,
You see her everywhere,
Recitals, plays, the opera and such.
And in the movie theatre, she's at it, can you beat her?
Since wifey started knitting,
Hubby does'nt count for much.

Repeat chorus. All day long etc.

III.

The boys who do the fighting,
In trenches damp and cold,
The Jackies who are sailing o'er the sea,
Need all that you can knit,
So come on, do your bit.
The outcome of this war depends
An awful lot on you.

Chorus to third verse.

All day long just sit, and knit
For soldiers, and sailors who are fighting o'er the sea.
You know the more you're knitting,
The better you are fitting
With comforts, those who battle for the Cause of liberty.
The wristlets, socks and helmets,
The sweaters, scarfs and caps,
Will keep them snug and warm, through thick and thin.
So when the war is done,
And they come marching home,
You'll be proud to know that you have helped them win.

M1646
.M

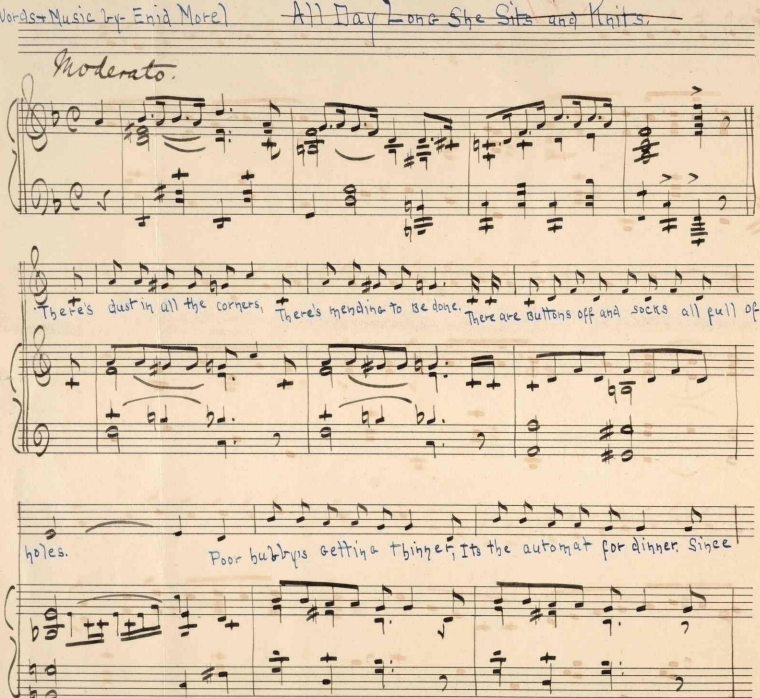
For Copyright

M1646
.M

Sitting Knitting (E.M.)

Words & Music by Enid Morel

~~All Day Long She Sits and Knits.~~



Chorus.

All day long she sits, and for soldiers, and sailors who are fighting o'er the sea. While hub-boy's shirts are ripping, She's sitting and knitting, knitting for the boys who're going to set our country free. Its wristlets, socks and helmets, Its sweaters, scarfs and caps. She's sitting, knitting, morning, noon and night. If he wants things done for him, Why then the only thing, Is to march away to war and join the fight