3.
Everybody loves a soldier.
His heart that dies to right a wrong;
And to break Oppression's hold
Oh, he'll fight until he's cold
For he's valiant, brave and bold—
Heaven grant his arm be true and strong.

4.
Everybody loves a soldier.
Hark— his battle-cry rings loud and free;
God, oh God who rules the world,
Swift from pow'r be Tyrants hurled,
Freedom's Flag shine forth unfurled
Sign and signal for Humanity.
