POOR OLD KAISER

Allegretto.

by Captain Eli.

1. With bombs and guns and Turks and Huns, The Kai-ser means to win, Sir; He's
 2. The Pruss-ians think to win the war, By cru-el-ties in-hu-man; They
 3. He has the most co-loss-al gall, This Kai-ser, Will-iam, ben-dit; in
 4. The All-ied arms will put him down, And then the Ger-man na-tion. They

1. un-der the sea, and up in the air; Mak-ing a night-y din, Sir.
 2. send off their Zepp-lyns into the air; Kill-ing the kids and wom-en.
 3. spite of his plan to plum-der us all; Our All-ies would not stand it.
 4. will have the sense to take off his crown; And put him on pro-ba-tion.

Chorus.

Poor old Kai-ser, Poor old Kai-ser,

Took a bite he could not chew, And now he is get-ting wis-er.
