©CLE430366
AUG -6 1918

WHEN I GET BACK TO AMERICA AND YOU

A CHEERY MARCH SONG

By

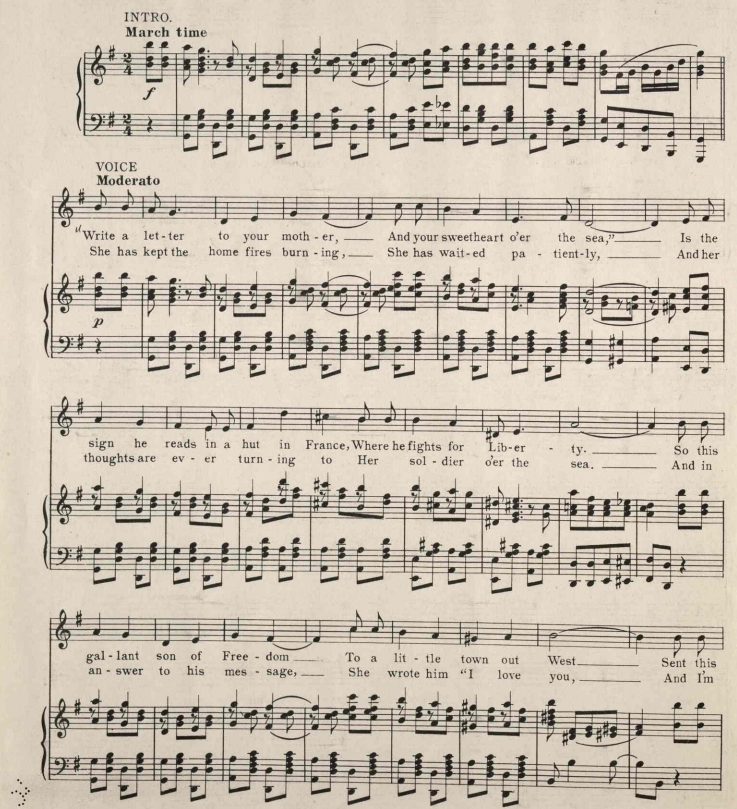
JOSEPH NEWMAN

JOSEPH NEWMAN
DENVER, COLORADO

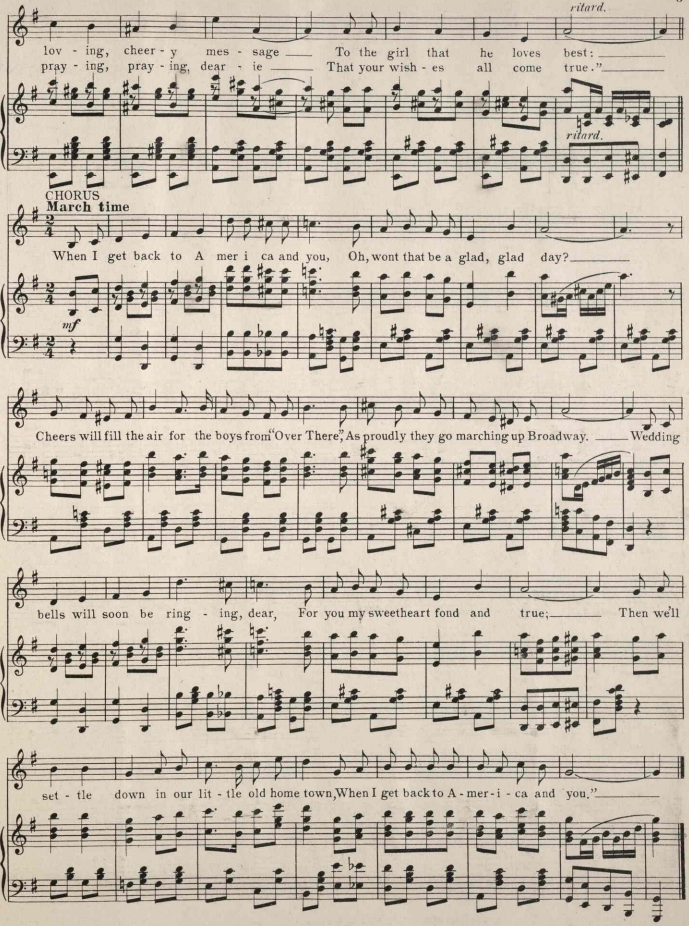
M1626
.N

WHEN I GET BACK TO AMERICA AND YOU

JOSEPH NEWMAN



Copyright MCMXVIII by Joseph Newman, Denver, Colo.
International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved.



ritard.
lov - ing, cheer - y mes - sage To the girl that he loves best:
pray - ing, pray - ing, dear - ie That your wish - es all come true."
ritard.
CHORUS
March time
When I get back to A mer i ca and you, Oh, wont that be a glad, glad day?
mf
Cheers will fill the air for the boys from "Over There," As proudly they go marching up Broadway. Wedding bells will soon be ring - ing, dear, For you my sweetheart fond and true; Then we'll set - tle down in our lit - tle old home town, When I get back to A - mer - i - ca and you."

SONGS

Composed by Joseph Newman

STORY BALLADS AND SONGS OF SENTIMENT.

Breaking the Ties of Home
A pathetic ballad, on the popular order, suggested by Hovenden's famous picture, "Breaking Home Ties".....50

By Thy Side
A beautiful love ballad, with music of a high order.....40

Far or Near
A pretty love song, written in waltz time.....40

I'm Going to Colorado
A beautiful sentimental song, on the popular order, but with words of unusual merit, and an appreciative, pleasing melody. Words by Richard J. Hicks, music by Mr. Newman.....50

I'm Longing to be Back With Sweetheart May
A miner's love song, simple and sweet. Words by R. H. Kane, music by Mr. Newman.....50

Just Say That One Little Word
A dainty love song, written in dreamy waltz time. Words by Mattie J. Crowley, Music by Mr. Newman.....50

Let Bygones be Bygones, Dear
On the order of "Absence Makes the Heart Grow Fonder," and destined to be as popular.....50

Memory Dear, or In Days Long Gone
A retrospective love song. Words by Olney Newell, music by Mr. Newman.....40

Mother and I
A beautiful ballad of unusual merit, and something new in the song line. Words by Cy Warman, author of "Sweet Marie," music by Mr. Newman.....40

Mother at the Gate
A song with a beautiful idea gracefully carried out. The music is rich and melodious.....40

My Lovely Mountain Girl
One of those "girl" songs that everybody enjoys. Words by John L. Mullins, music by Mr. Newman.....40

No One But You, Dear
A brilliant love song, well written, and with music of a high order. Words by Lucy E. Greene, music by Mr. Newman.....50

Now She's Gone
A pathetic little song of much sweetness and tenderness. Words by Leola L. Allard, music by Mr. Newman.....50

The Sad Sea
Cy Warman's beautiful poem, which originally appeared in the "London Times." The music is considered by some critics to be Mr. Newman's best composition.....40

That is Why I Love You, Little Sweetheart
A sweet little love song with a most pleasing melody.....40

Tell Mamma I Have Gone with Dad
A little girl's simple story told in pretty and pleasing verse and melody. Words by Lucy E. Greene, music by Mr. Newman.....40

When Thou Art Near
A charming love song, written in waltz time. Words by Wallace Ansebarg, music by Mr. Newman.....40

Wrap the Flag Around Me When I'm Dead
A pathetic war song. A Confederate veteran's story of his devotion in the Spanish-American war. Words by Lucy E. Greene, music by Mr. Newman.....50

You'll Live in Your Country's Heart
A stirring patriotic song, written in spirited march time. Words by Edgar Malone, music by Mr. Newman.....50

SACRED SOLOS.

Give Me, God, a Grateful Heart
A sacred solo.....50

God Will Provide
Words by Alice Polk Hill, music by Mr. Newman.....50

Oh, Thou Who Rules the Earth and Stars
Words by Mattie J. Crowley, music by Mr. Newman.....50

LULLABIES.

Baby, Niggah Baby
A philosophical little "coon" song, tender and sweet. Words by Bide Dudley, music by Mr. Newman.....50

LULLABIES—Continued.

Hush-a-Bye, Little One, Sleep
A dainty, pretty lullaby. Words by Cy Warman, music by Mr. Newman.....40

Hush! Now, Don't You Wake Him!
Companion song to the well known "A Plantation Lullaby." The melody is very pleasing, and impresses the hearer at once.40

Mammy's Little Angel Child
One of the sweetest negro lullabies ever written.....50

Mother's Cradle Song
Poetic and imaginative, sweetly melodious.....40

Mother's Love, or Watching O'er You
A tender lullaby, strong in its simplicity, tuneful and pretty. Words by Lillian Landon Waldron, music by Mr. Newman.....40

A Plantation Lullaby
A dialect song with a quaint and catchy melody.....40

Slumber, Slumber, On
A negro lullaby, combining quaintly weird words with tender, soothing music 50

COMIC SONGS AND HUMOROUS NOVELTIES.

Come and Put Your Arms Around Me, Honey
A "cheer up" coon song, brightly and smartly written. Words by Leo Goetz, music by Mr. Newman.....50

The Girl Who Loved Him So, or The Parlor Clock Ticked on "Tick Tock"
A dainty, humorous song, with a pleasing melody. Words by Nixon Waterman, music by Mr. Newman.....50

He's With the Angels Now
A comic surprise.....40

H'ist Yer Umbrella
A popular coon song, with an extremely catchy ad libitum dance. Keeps the feet a-going.....40

I'm Not Feeling Well
A comic song that will surely cure the blues.....40

Keep Away From My Baby, Keep Away
A "red hot" coon song which has a captivating swing and "go" to it 50

Later On
A popular topical ditty 40

Let Me Dream Again
A humorous "dream" song with new flights of fancy.....40

My Girl is a Different Kind
A good-natured satire on the average "girl" song, written in Mr. Newman's truly humorous vein.....40

Papa Isn't Home To-Night
A serio-comic song (with an extremely catchy ad libitum dance) suitable for a little girl to sing.....40

Shootin' Craps
The first, and still the best song written about the "coon" game, "craps." The subject has been handled in a highly amusing manner, peculiarly original with Mr. Newman. 40

Since Birdie Commenced Her Delsarte
The famous DELSARTE song, you've either heard or heard about. A deliciously funny song.....40

Then He Told Another One
A German's attempt to recount the jokes he heard at a minstrel show. A very amusing song that sets an audience roaring with laughter. 50

These Medals on My Breast
A mock heroic song, with an incidental moral. It is written in march time, and is decidedly catchy.....40

They Ought to Take Something For That
Some good-natured advice on fads and foibles of the day.....40

We Had to Hire Another Girl
A song which treats of the servant girl question humorously. A genuinely funny song with a very pleasing melody.....40

Who'd Think of That But Hogan!
A smart bit of an Irish song, showing the droll humor of clever Patsy Hogan. The words are witty, the music catchy.....50

Joseph Newman, Denver, Colo.

Send for Mr. NEWMAN'S funniest Coon Song Hit, "DAT'S NO PLACE FOR A NERVOUS MAN."

438262