

Nolly, Jack.

IF WE HADN'T SENT OUR BOYS ACROSS THE SEA

Published by Central Music Co.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

M1646 NOLLY, JACK
IF WE HADN'T SENT OUR BOYS...
.N

46

If We Hadn't Sent Our Boys Across The Sea

Words and Music by JACK NOLL

Where would now the Tom-mies and the Poi-lus be
The Tom-mies and the Poi-lus are some fight-ers fine
But our boys turned the tide of the eb-bing fight

If we had-nt sent our boys a-cross the sea? They might have no place to stay and be
And they had fought night-y hard and sure did try To drive the Ger-mans back to the much
As they start-ed in the good old Yan-kee way Put the Ger-mans to flight, set Tom-mies now on their way To this land of Lib-er-ty and Free-dom, our dear old U. S. A. co-vet-ed Rhine But in vain were all their ef-forts they were all ways man-y miles shy.

and Poi-lus right It was they that won the Vic-to-ry our boys from the U. S. A.

CHORUS

If we hear them tell a-bout the war as it was be -

ff

fore Our boys took a hand just say

mf

Where would now the Tom-mies and the Poi - lus be If our boys had-nt gone a-cross the

ff

sea They might have no place to stay and be now on their way To this

ff

land of Lib-er - ty and Free-dom our dear old U. S. A.

1 2

469185