

JUL -2 1917

TO
THE FORGES OF THE UNITED STATES
AND HER ALLIES

MARCHING TO VICTORY

Song ^{AND} Chorus

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

MARGARET S. LINN-PARR

5

PUBLISHED BY

LINN-PARR PUBLISHING CO.

119 So. 4TH ST.

15 SUITE 2071

PHILADELPHIA.

H1646

.P

4

MARCHING TO VICTORY.

Words and Music by MARGARET S. LINN-PARR.

Marziale.

Spirited.

1. There's a cry from dear old Bel-gium, Shall we go, or stay? There's a
2. There is dear, old, mer-ry Eng-land With her tale of woe, She's the plea from Sis - ter France com - ing day by day: Shall we moth - er of this Na - tion, Boys, Shall we stay, or go? There

mf

leave them in their sor - row, there, Or sail to - mor - row and treat them square, And are no "slack - ers" in this land, God gave each one a strong, free hand To end this cru - el war - fare right a - way, right a - way. Wé're help his broth - er man wher - éer he be, éer he be. Wé're poco rit.

CHORUS. Maestoso.

March - - - ing, yes, wé're march - - - ing!

mf

March-ing mil-lions strong. March-ing, Boys, to vic-tory!

Lad-dies, come a-long! We're fight-ing for civ-il-i-za-tion,

We come from that Glor-ious Na-tion, Where ev'-ry man is born strong, brave and free, free, Born free! free, Born free!

cresc.

1 2

1 2

1775

1776

1777

411530