DEC -7 1918
©CLE438586

~~"Hip, Hip, Hooray"~~

"The Way"

[Wilbur Phillips]

"A new day shines about us."
Woodrow Wilson

Copyright
1918
by Wilbur C. Phillips

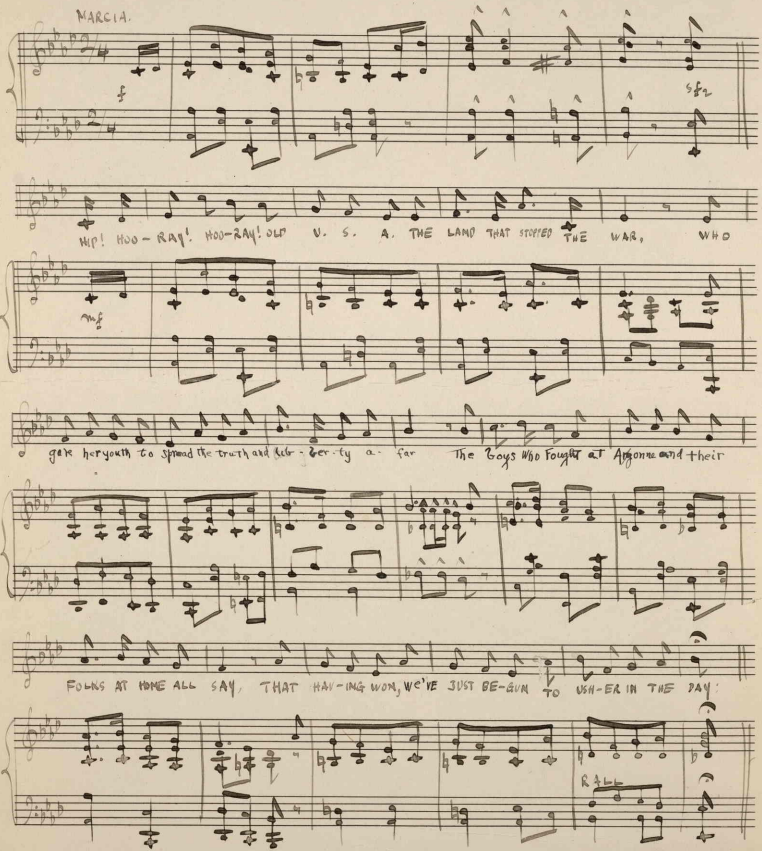
All foreign rights reserved in countries of Europe, South America, and elsewhere

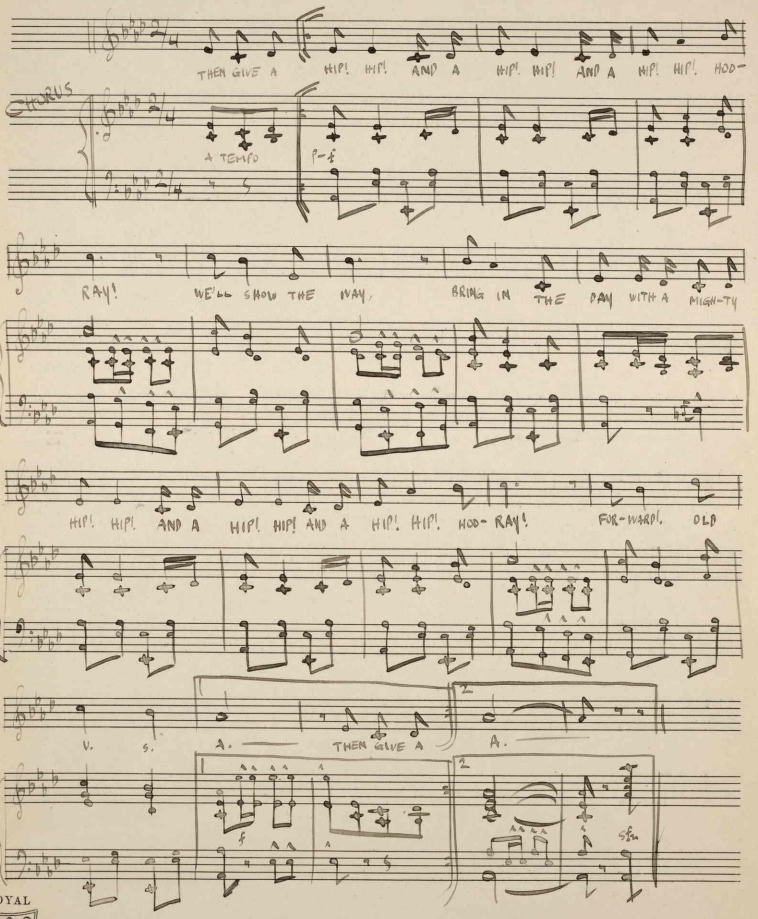
ROYAL
CROWN BRAND
M1646
P

"The Day"

~~"Hip, Hip, Hooray!"~~

"THE ~~HIP, HIP~~ DAY"





ROYAL CROWN BRAND

445101

DEC -7 1918

~~HIP, HOORAY! HOORAY!~~

"The Day"
"A New Day Shines about us,"
Woodrow Wilson.

I.

Hip, Hooray! Hooray! Old U. S. A.
The land that stopped the war!
Who gave her youth to spread the truth
And liberty afar.
The boys who fought in Argonne
And their folks at home all say
That, having won, we've just begun
To usher in The Day.

CHORUS.

Then give a hip, hip! and a hip, hip! and a hip,hip,hooray!
We'll show the way,
Bring in The Day!
With a mighty hip, hip, and a hip,hip, and a hip,hip,hooray!
Forward old U.S.A.

II.

We've fought for all that we hold high,
Democracy and right.
We've shown mankind that men can die
For other things than might.
The world has caught the truth we've taught,
So forward press and pray
That, having won, we've just begun
To usher in The Day! ..... CHORUS.

III.

To those who lie in Flanders field
'Neath poppies white and red,
We pledge our oath we will not yield
The cause for which they bled.
We swear to them we'll "carry on"
Till justice holds full sway;
That, having won, we've just begun
To usher in The Day! ..... CHORUS.

IV.

The day of peace and brotherhood,
Of wholesome toil and mirth;
When childhood's song, unquenched by wrong,
Shall ring around the earth!

****

Copyright
1918
By Wilbur V. Phillips.
All foreign rights reserved in countries of Europe,
South America and elsewhere.

Toward this they led, our gallant dead,
And none shall bar the way,
For, having won, we've just begun
To usher in The Day. .....CHORUS.

V.

March on to victories ahead,
From the victory that's won,
March on o'er thrones and sceptres
Till our mighty task is done.
A new world shines before us
And we'll tread its holy way,
For, having won, we've just begun
To usher in The Day. .....CHORUS.

****

International Version.

I.

Hip, Hooray! Hooray! Salute The Day!
Ye brave who won the war!
Who gave your youth to spread the truth
And liberty afar.
The ~~boys who fought that bitter fight~~ (ye bris) lads from Wipers.
And we at home all say
That, having won, we've just begun Marne, Piave
To usher in The Day!

CHORUS.

Then give a hip,hip, and a hip,hip, and a hip,hip,hooray!
We'll show the way,
Stand guard for aye,
With a might hip,hip, and a hip,hip, and a hip,hip,hooray!
'Tention! Salute! The Day!

(2nd, 3rd and 4th stanzas same as American version.)

V.

March on to victories ahead,
From the victory that's won,
March on, ye comrade peoples,
Till our mighty task is done.
A new world shines before us,
And we'll tread its holy way,
For, having won, we've just begun
To usher in The Day. ....CHORUS.

****

Copyright
1918
By Wilbur C. Phillips,
All foreign rights reserved in countries of Europe,
South America and elsewhere.