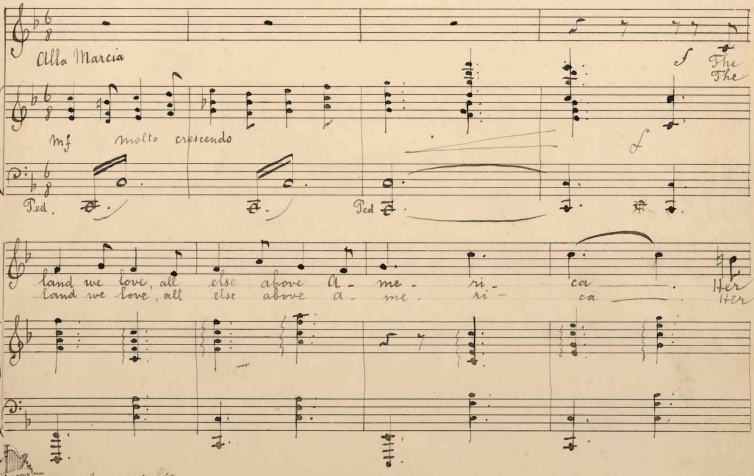
APR 16 1917
©CLE404379

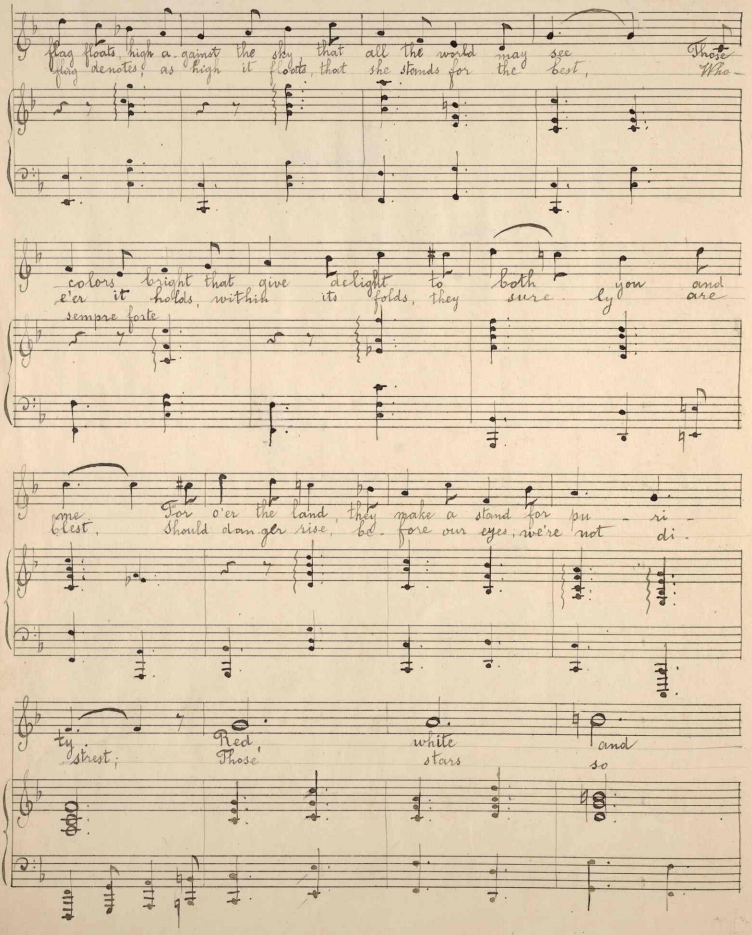
The Yankee Patriot.

Words by Ella L. Watts.

Music by Edward Poltes.



Copyright.
H1646
P



flag floats high a - gainst the sky that all the world may see Those flag denotes as high it floats that she stands for the best, Who - colors bright that give delight to both you and e'er it holds within its folds, they sure by are sempre forte me Tor o'er the land they make a stand for pu - ri - blest, Should dan-ger rise, be - fore our eyes, we're not di - ty strest; Red, Those white stars and so blue. Those shining stars, those crimson bars that shout to the true, That know no fear, should foe appear, they soon her steel would ty test,

We We'll
fight die for for you, Our best be-loved a-me-ri-
you, Our best be-loved a-me-ripoco ritenuto Chorus.
ca. We'll fight, we'll fight with strenght and might for you unto the ff
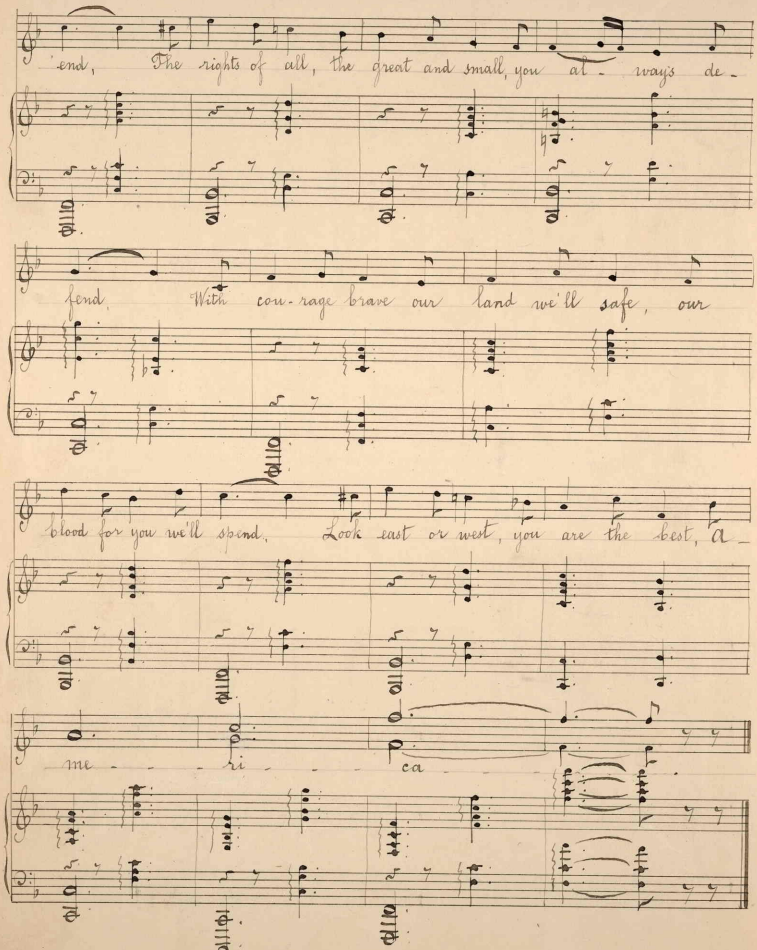
a Tempo



end, The rights of all, the great and small, you al - ways de - fend, With cou - rage brave our land we'll safe, our blood for you we'll spend, Look east or west, you are the best, a - me - - - ri - - - ca