©CLE409480
JUL 31 1917

A MARCHING SONG

for

AMERICA

Words by Edith Willis Linn
(Copyright: Life Publishing Co.)

Music by
Henri J. van Praag

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Song | .60 | 2 Equal Voices (Suitable for school use) | .10 |
| Small Orch. & Pf. | .65 net | Trio for Women's Voices | .10 |
| Full Orch. & Pf. | .90 net | Quartette for Male Voices | .10 |
| Band | .50 net | Quartette for Mixed Voices | .10 |

PRICE .60

CHAPPELL & CO. Ltd.
41, EAST THIRTY-FOURTH STREET, NEW YORK
LONDON TORONTO MELBOURNE

Copyright, 1917, by Chappell & Co., Ltd.
All Rights Reserved.

M1646
.P

A Marching Song for America

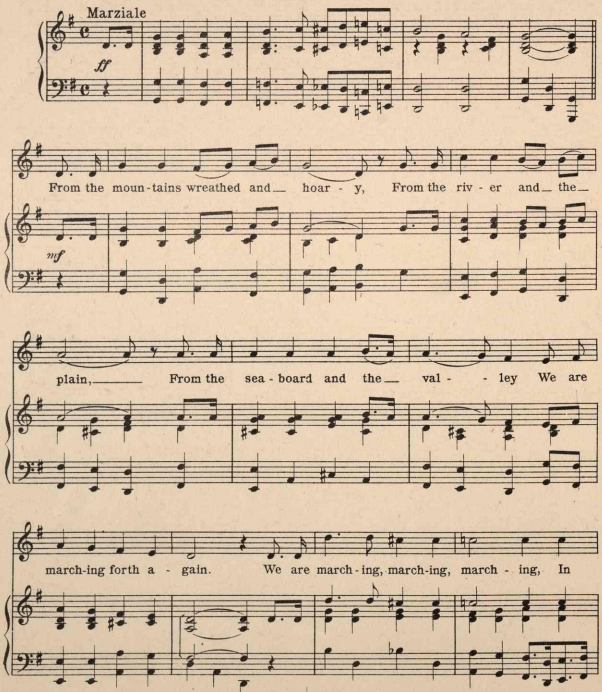
Lyrics by
EDITH WILLIS LINN
(Copyright Life Publishing Company)

Music by
HENRI J. VAN PRAAG



Copyright 1917 by Chappell & Co. Ltd. New York All rights reserved Words Copyright by Life Publishing Company

an - swer to the call Of just - ice for the na - - tions And lib - er - ty for all.
We are com - ing, we are ff
mf
com - ing, As the pil - grims came of yore. We will ral - ly 'round Old Glo - ry As our fa - thers did be - fore. We are march - ing, march-ing, march - ing, Mil-lions march-ing to the call Of just - ice for the na - - tions And lib - er - ty for all.

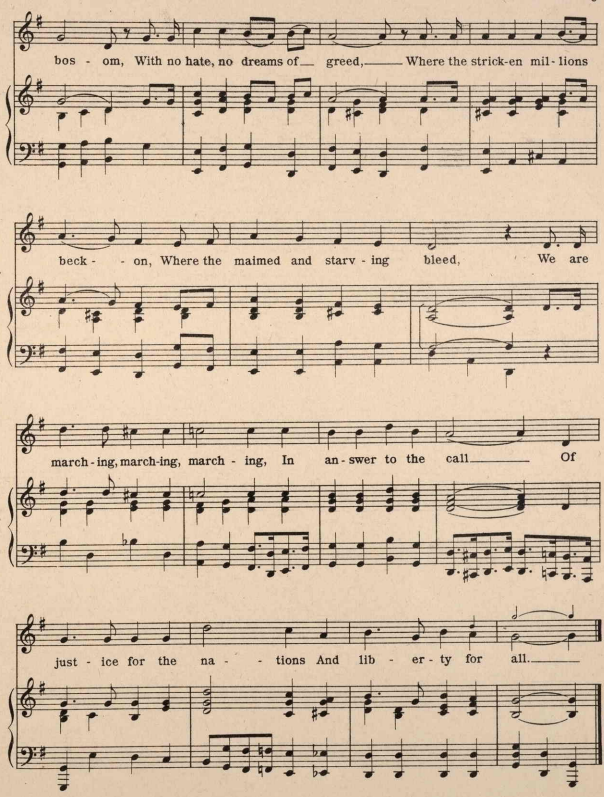
With no mal-ice in our
ff
mf



bos - om, With no hate, no dreams of greed, Where the strick-en mil - lions beck - - on, Where the maimed and starv - ing bleed, We are march - ing, march-ing, march - ing, In an - swer to the call Of just - ice for the na - - tions And lib - er - ty for all.

413705