

OUR UNCLE SAM

By J. S. RAMEY.

5

Published by _____ THE COMPOSER
_____ SALIDA, COLO.

M1646

R

OUR UNCLE SAM

Words & Music by
J. S. RAMEY

Moderato con spirito

mf

Cornet in B♭

Assembly, Cor. only (ad lib.)

VAMP TILL READY. Interlude between verses

VOICE

mf marcato sempre

Our Un-cle Sam ex-alt-ed friend of ev-ry land, To all the world a bea-con light, — He Our Un-cle Sam the pa-triot sounds the bu-gle call, When du-ty points no oth-er way, — A Our Un-cle Sam be-lov-ed, we will hon-or thee, Thy ban-ner in the sky shall wave, — An

mf marcato sempre

hon-ors peace, yet fal-ters not to firm-ly stand, For Jus-tice, Truth and Right. — host of staunch-de-fen-ders beg in line to fall, For good U. S. A. — em-blem of a na-tion that's for-ev-er free, Co-lum-bia true and brave. —

f

Deliberto

spokenspokenrit.spo.

When the odds were hard a-gainst him, did he pale? No. No. Did he quail? No. No. Did he fall? — No mp

rit.

Obligato. Cornet in B \flat Clarinet in B \flat 8va

Reveille

CHORUS - Vigoroso

Then hip, hip, hur-rah! — Three cheers for Uncle Sam; — For Jus-tice, Truth and Right. — We'll

Small notes Flute or Violin

Reveille

Dixie

float Old Glo-ry proud-ly to the breeze, An em-blem of — our might. — We fear no foe, — our boys are brave we know, — On land — and on — the sea, — Their

Hail Columbia

lives they free-ly lend, To gal-lant-ly de-feud, Our price-less lib-er-ty. —

The Skies Are Blue In Colorado

March Song and Chorus

Words and Music by
J. S. RAMEY

Marcia

mf

Marcato, maestoso

A cen - tu - ry of free - dom's light and glo - ry, Had A mas - ter stroke of na - ture's grand cre - a - tion, Ma - shone with grace and splen - dor near and far; When jes - tic snow clad moun - tains point a - bove, To

mf

Copyright MCMXVI by J. S. Ramey.