

JAN -5 1918

©DE418027

DEDICATED TO
THE "BOYS OVER THERE."

MARCHING THROUGH GERMANY

BY
R. C. RAWLINGS.

PUBLISHED BY
RAWLINGS PUBLISHING CO.
1213 GRAND AVENUE TEMPLE
KANSAS CITY, MO.

M1646

.R.

Marching Through Germany

Words by
R. C. RAWLINGS

Music by
HENRY C. WORK

Tempo di Marcia

f con spirito

The piano introduction consists of two staves in 4/4 time. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass accompaniment with quarter notes and chords. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat).

1. Sound the good old bu - gle lads, And wave the Stripes and Stars
2. Poor Ser - vi - a and Bel - gium are cry - ing loud for aid
3. We owe a debt to sun - ny France which now we can re - pay

mf

The first system shows the vocal melody for three verses and the piano accompaniment. The piano part consists of chords in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand. The key signature remains two flats.

For now its "Boots and Sad dies" for eve - ry son of Mars We've stood enough, We'll stand no more We're While France is sore - ly wound - ed but fight - ing un - a - fraid And Johnny Bull is fighting now As
So let us line up eve - ry one And not put off the day Let the cow - ards stay at home While

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part features some chordal changes in the right hand. The key signature remains two flats.

go - ing now to war As we go march - ing through Ger - many if it was his trade So let's go march - ing through Ger - many brave men lead the way As we go march - ing through Ger - many

The third system concludes the piece with the final vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part ends with a final chord in the right hand and a sustained note in the left hand. The key signature remains two flats.

Words Copyrighted 1917 by R. C. Rawlings.

All rights reserved by the author for the joint benefit of the American Red Cross and Y. M. C. A.

CHORUS

ff SOPRANO
Hur - rah! Hur - rah! We'll set the Bel - gi - ans free Hur - rah! Hur - rah! For

ff ALTO
Hur - rah! Hur - rah! We'll set the Bel - gi - ans free Hur - rah! Hur - rah! For

ff TENOR
Hur - rah! Hur - rah! We'll set the Bel - gi - ans free Hur - rah! Hur - rah! For

ff BASS
Hur - rah! Hur - rah! We'll set the Bel - gi - ans free Hur - rah! Hur - rah! For

World - Dem - o - cra - cy We're fighting now for hum - an rights and

World - Dem - o - cra - cy We're fighting now for hum - an rights and

free - dom of the sea While we are march - ing through Ger - many.

free - dom of the sea While we are march - ing through Ger - many.

DON'T BE A SHIRK

AIR: Marching Through Georgia

- 1 Wave the Stars and Stripes, my lads,
 And let the bugles blare;
 The Germans thought they'd lick the world
 'Fore others could prepare;
 But the Kaiser's rule is over, for there's
 Freedom in the air,
 As we go marching 'gainst Germany.

CHORUS.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Dutch Bill's cut out our work.
 Hurrah! Hurrah! He's partner with the Turk.
 Come on and join the Colors, boys,
 Don't be a dirty shirk,
 While we are fighting with Germany.

- 2 The Kaiser thought he'd rule the world
 With his autocratic rule,
 And to set the ball a-rolling,
 Used Austria as a tool;
 But long 'fore they get through with Bill,
 They'll prove he was a fool,
 To think none could fight but Germany.

CHORUS.

- 3 With Zeppelins and Submarines
 He thought the world to scare;
 He thought he'd lick them every one
 On sea and in the air;
 But France and Belgium blocked his game
 Till England could prepare,
 And now we go fighting 'gainst Germany.

CHORUS.

All rights reserved by the author for the exclusive benefit of the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A.

April 15, 1917.

R. C. RAWLINGS,
 1213 Grand Ave. Temple Bldg.,
 Kansas City, Mo.