

© CLE 457233 R SEP 15 1919

A Soldier's Memories

H1646
R

By
D. GEORGE REINHARD

PUBLISHED BY Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

A Soldier's Memories

D. GEORGE REINHARD.

Valse Moderato.

mf

Moderato.

I've stood guard in the lone - ly street, _____ In the Then my moth - er sang so sweet; _____ I can
 But the days have come and gone _____ Since I p

rain and in the sleet, _____ I have hear it in my sleep, _____ And the last have heard that song; _____ Then I lain at death's dark door, _____ And have song of my child - hood days _____ In my trav - eled far and wide, _____ And have longed to see the shore.

lone - ly heart still stays.
rode the o - - cean's tide.

CHORUS. Valse Moderato.

I am long - ing for those days _____ That a - gain my heart will cheer, _____ Days with all their peace - ful ways That are in my mem - o - ry dear. _____

4. But wherever I did roam
Come fond memories of Home,
And my heart has been so dear.
Give me back my home so dear.

469881