John-ny Mc-Crew is way over in France . Help-ing the boys make old Wilhelm to dance

He is quite anxious to do all he can and to train and to fight for his Coun-ter-ee.

John-ny was one of the first ones to go . Whether by will or by force I don't know

Ne-ver-the-less, he is do-ing his best, for his land of the brave and the free.
So when our Johnny comes a marching back to home a-gain. He'll get all the greeting's that we know of then, for he'll be wel-comed by the pretty maidens of the land and old-er fellows then will want to shake his hand. He will be a he-ro for all time to come. He will be the pride of us

all. and we'll shout with joy when our
