Words by
CHARLES J. BAUERLE

Music by
DAVID REED

Piano

They sailed a - cross the great, big sea, To fight for peace and They're lone - some now, all sad and blue, Just cast a - side, no lib - er - ty, And up - on their re - turn they were praised and cheerd, By the work to do, Though pro - tect - ed and praised when they fought their fight, They're ne - coun - tries that they made free, ——— Now it's up to us to gloc - ted, for - got - ten too, ——— They're all did their bit, now pay our debt, And to see that their wants and their needs are met.

let's do ours, Let us help while the min - utes to them seem hours.

Chorus

Just treat them square as we did in the war, Just treat them square as we all did be - fore, Let those who have plen - ty have sym - pa - thy, And help for the sake of hu - man - i - ty, Don't make a blun der but think what they bore, And just treat them square as we did in the war.
