Fox-trot tempo.

VAMP

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The melody starts with a triplet of eighth notes (G4, A4, B4) and continues with a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass line consists of a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The piece is marked mf and p.

The first system of the song features a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with the lyrics: "We are start-ing out a new year, let us vow to make a change, There will As we have the raw ma-te-rial to manu-fac-ture, night and day, Let us". The piano accompaniment provides a rhythmic foundation with chords and moving lines in both hands.

The second system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line includes the lyrics: "be ma-ny things con-front us and some wed find are strange. We keep all the home mills run-ning in the good old U. S. A., Our". The piano accompaniment features a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand.

The third system concludes the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line contains the lyrics: "have no wa-ter wa-gons here to mount to fall next day, But we coun-try then will flour-ish and our boys will set-tle down, And no". The piano accompaniment includes a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand.

pledge our - selves to on - ly use goods made in U. S. A., They're the goods to keep you warm and vacant buildings will you find when you are walk - ing round your town, When the trav - ler vis - its us he'll fur - nish la - bor for us too, And When you view it from a business point it's the proper thing to do.

wink his eye and say: The peo - ple here are up to date in the good old U. S. A.

CHORUS

Our he - roes are re - turn - ing home and they're coming back to stay, And make their homes for - ev - er in the good old U. S. A., So let us lend a help - ing hand to give them work to do To run our fac - tories night and day, it's up to me and you. Our up to me and you.
