©CLE436415 C R

OCT 28 1918

Heaven.

Words by James Arthur Edgerton
Washington D.C.

Music by Marian Sargent
322 S. 11 St.
Lincoln
Neb.

In the memory of my sister, Helen M. Sargent, who, on duty as Red Cross nurse at Ft. Slocum N.Y. gave her life Oct. 20, 1918, for the cause of democracy.

This Copy made Oct 24, 1918.

To be sung for the first time at the military funeral for Helen to be held at Wyuka Cemetery, Lincoln, Neb, probably Oct 25 or 26, 1918.

Lola March Henline (Soloist)
Stephen Jelinek (Cornetist)

Helen's father Chas. N. Sargent Co E. 8th Mass Vol. - father of Helen Capt. of Engrs Joseph C. Sargent "Somewhere in France" Brother of Helen (C.E.F.)

H1646
.S

Words by James Arthur Edgerton,
Washington, D.C.

Heaven

In the memory of my sister, Helen M. Sargent who, on duty as a Red Cross nurse, Oct. 20, 1918 at St. Sloan, N.Y. gave her life for the cause of democracy.

Music by Marian Sargent
3222 O St.,
Lincoln,
Neb.

Rapturously

mp

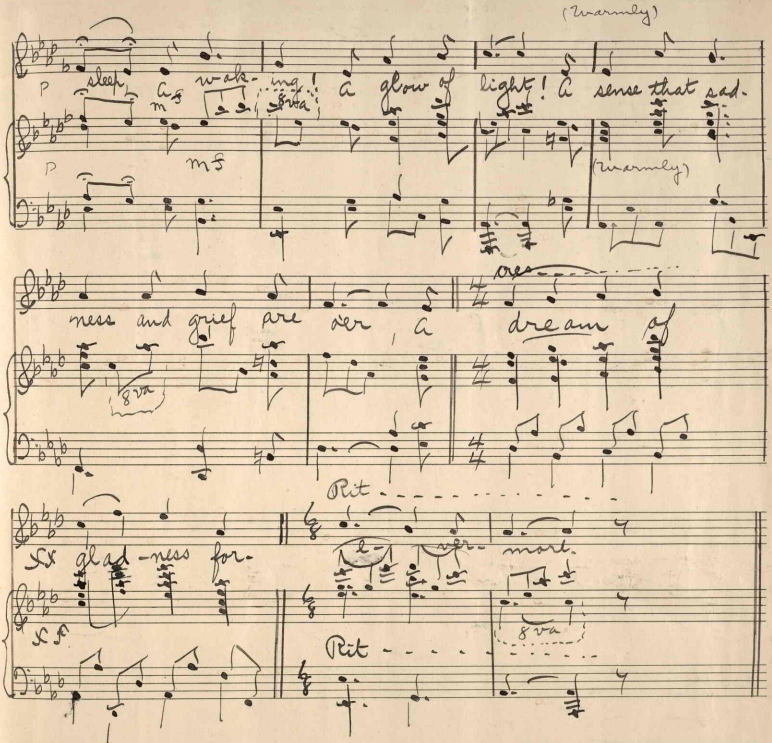
A golden vi- sion! A glimpse of day! Her hills e- lys- ian, a shining way! A portal swing- ing! A gate a- jar! A an- gel singing a song a- far! A sweet dawn break- ing up on the night! A



(warmly)
sleep as wak-ing! a glow of light! a sense that sad-mf 8va
(warmly)
ness and grief are ev-er, a dream of ev-er-
Rit Ff glad-ness for-ev-er-
mort.
Ff 8va
Rit

440547