©CLE491667
OCT 22 1920

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

By Daisy Fairchild Sherman

Song
with Piano Accompaniment

Price, 60 cents

Copies may be obtained from the Composer at 419 West 118th Street, New York City

M1646
S

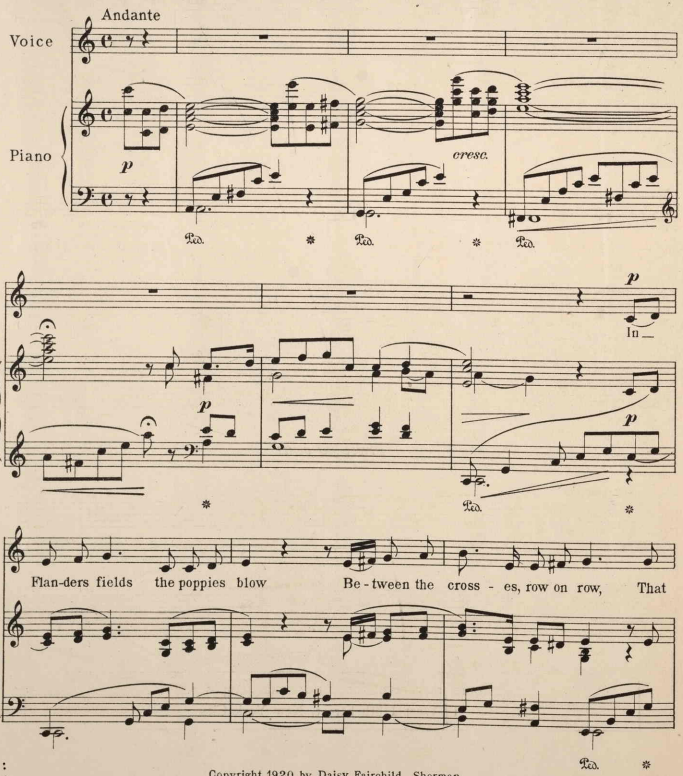
To Private Gerald Kingsley Northup

In Flanders Fields

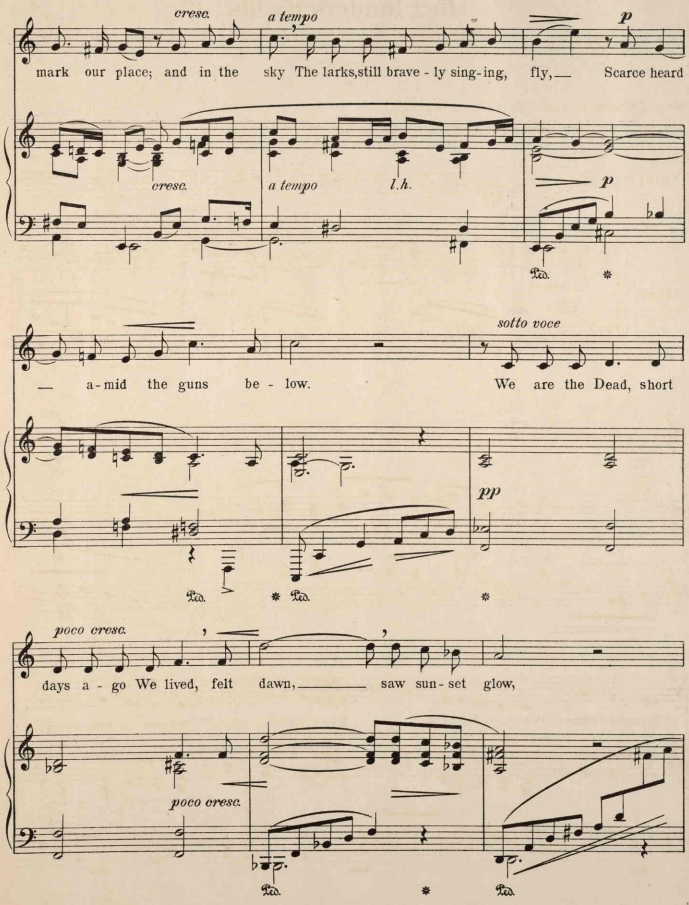
Mezzo Soprano

From "In Flanders Fields" by Lieut. Col. John McCrae
Courtesy of G. P. Putnam's Sons, Publishers, New York & London

Daisy Fairchild Sherman



Copyright 1920 by Daisy Fairchild Sherman



cresc.
a tempo
p
mark our place; and in the sky The larks,still brave - ly sing-ing, fly,— Scarce heard cresc.
a tempo
l.h.
p Ped.
sotto voce
— a-mid the guns be - low. We are the Dead, short pp Ped.
Ped.
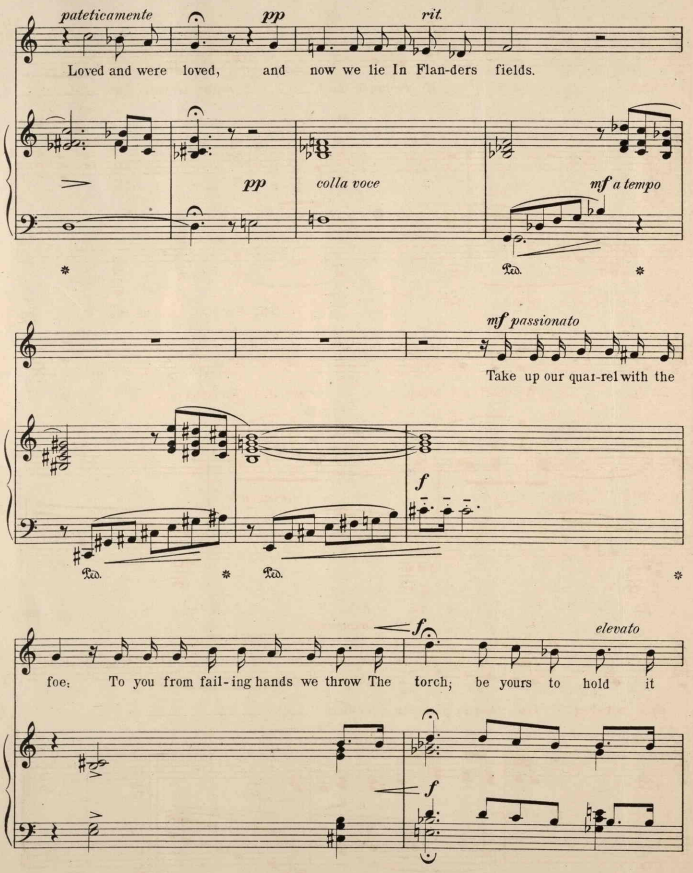
poco cresc.
days a - go We lived, felt dawn, saw sun-set glow,
poco cresc.
Ped.
Ped.



pateticamente
pp
rit.
Loved and were loved, and now we lie In Flan-ders fields.
pp
colla voce
mf a tempo
Ped.
mf passionato
Take up our quar-rel with the
f Ped.
Ped.
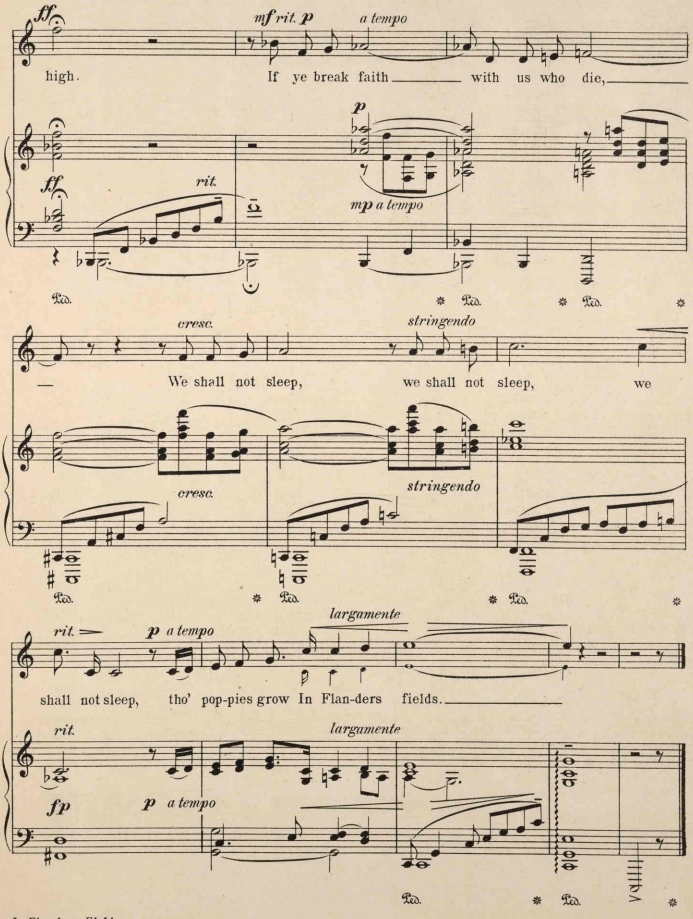
f
elevato
foe: To you from fail-ing hands we throw The torch; be yours to hold it
f



ff
mf rit. p
a tempo
high.
If ye break faith with us who die,
p ff
rit.
mp a tempo
Ped.
cresc.
stringendo
We shall not sleep, we shall not sleep, we cresc.
stringendo
rit.
p a tempo
largamente
shall not sleep, tho' pop-pies grow In Flan-ders fields.
rit.
largamente
fp
p a tempo
Ped.
Ped.

504177