

THERE'S SOMEONE AT HOME WHO CARES

H1626
S

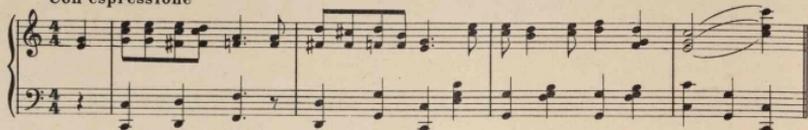

WORDS & MUSIC
BY
IDA BUSH SIEBURG

PUBLISHED BY
IDA BUSH SIEBURG
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLS

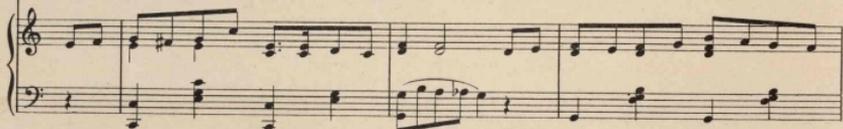

There's Some One At Home Who Cares

Words & Music by
IDA BUSH SIEBURG

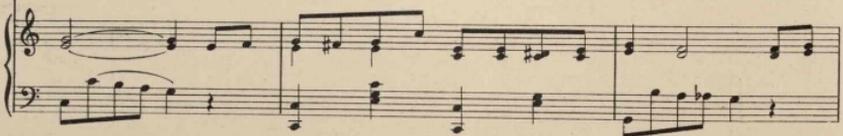

INTRO.
Con espressione

As a moth-er yields her babe that knows no wak - ing To the cold em-brace of moth-er earth, the Ah, be-fore we now there looms an-oth-er vis-ion To claim its share of sac-ri-fice and Let us hope that bonds of love may be un-bro-ken, That the might-y rul-ing pow-er still hold grave, ——— So the moth-er sends her boy, her heart a - break - ing At our pain, ——— One fond em-brace, one part - ing kiss, com - pan - ions Whom sway, ——— For the moth-er, for the wife and e'en the sweet - heart, To oun-try's call, to num-ber with the brave. — And who shall dare to gauge that moth-er's God has joined may nev-er meet a - gain. — Ah, two-fold is the help - mate's bit - ter be en - rap - tured on home - com - ing day. — We pray that all love dreams may be un - heart - ache _____ As with a smile she masks her gnaw - ing pain, _____ While the weep - ing _____ Her grief and that of chil - dren left be - hind, _____ The shat - tered _____ That hopes of hap - py life may be re - claimed, _____ That _____ kiss she press - es breathes un - spo - ken pray - er _____ To God to grant that they may meet a - gain _____ hus - band's part - ing steps tread out her heart's hope _____ To her in - deed fate is the most un - kind _____ all the part - ed ones be re - u - nit - ed _____ In this our land of lib - er - ty world - famed _____

CHORUS

Re - mem - ber dear boy, That vic - to - ry means joy, To us as well as you who does and dares, _____ Your glad - ness or your pain, Shall ech - o back a - gain, "There's some - one at home who cares!"

471239