MAY 14 1919
©CLE451193

Address: Katherine Call Simonds
Franklin, N.H.

Single copies 10 cts.

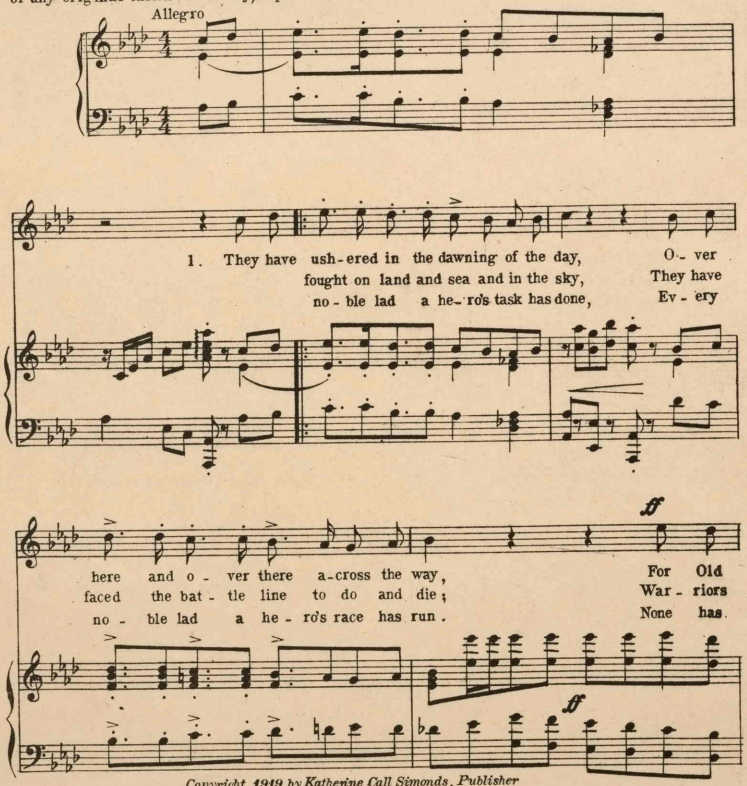
To
Freedom's Holy Cause

Oh the Lads, Triumphant Lads, in Brown and Blue.

(THE VICTORY SONG)

Words and Music by
KATHERINE CALL SIMONDS

The writer suggests a Victory Tableau to be displayed during the last chorus. A lady in white, two soldiers and two sailors, three large flags and a crown would be needed, with a red light over all, or any original tableau of victory, if preferred.



Copyright 1919 by Katherine Call Simonds, Publisher

Author-Composer

Going Across
There's a Soldier Lad in Khaki Over There.
Oh the Lads, Triumphant Lads in Brown and Blue.
I've a Cottage Built for Two.
The Heart of You.
Just Turned Two.

Temperance Songs:
The World is Going Dry. The Village Street at Home.
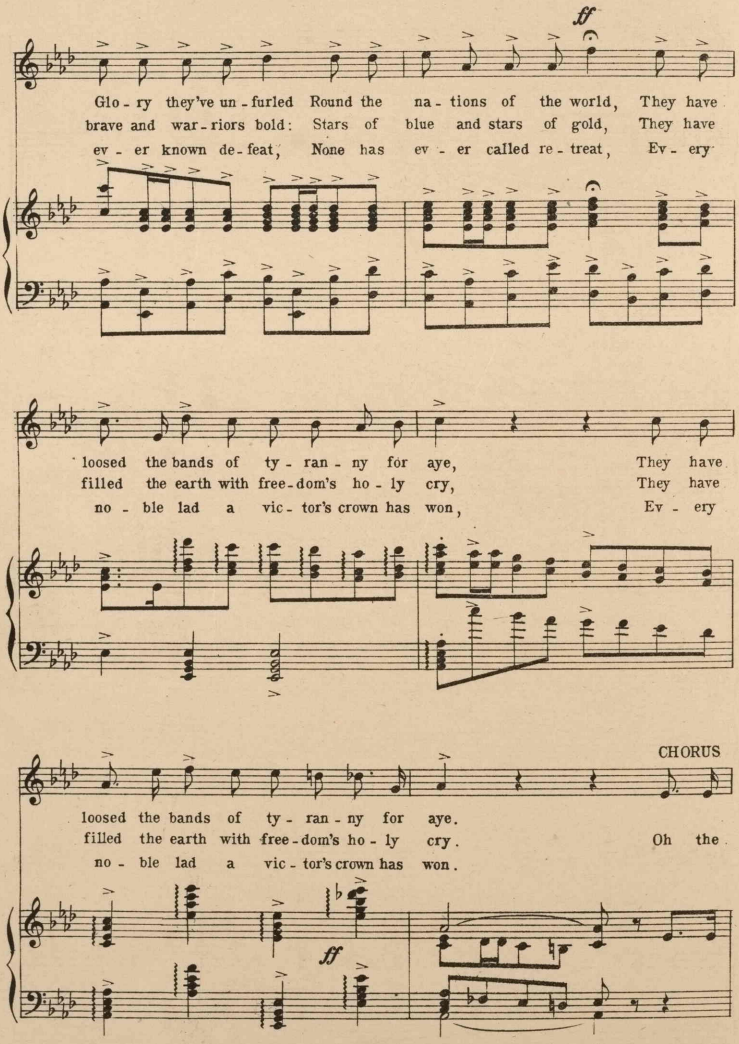
The Land where Old Glory Waves.

Composer

Seek Ye the Lord.
'Long in Apple Blossom Time.

M1646
.S



ff
Glo - ry they've un - furled Round the na - tions of the world, They have brave and war - riors bold: Stars of blue and stars of gold, They have ev - er known de - feat, None has ev - er called re - treat, Ev - ery loosed the bands of ty - ran - ny for aye, They have filled the earth with free - dom's ho - ly cry, They have no - ble lad a vic - tor's crown has won, Ev - ery
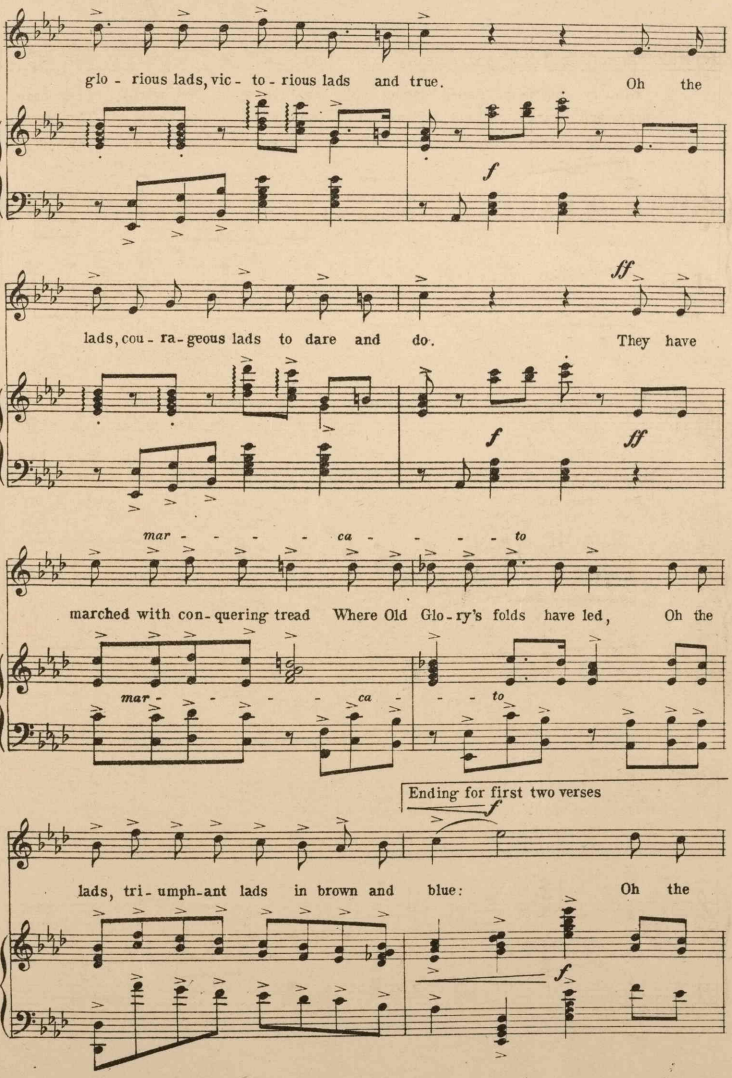
CHORUS
loosed the bands of ty - ran - ny for aye.
filled the earth with free - dom's ho - ly cry. Oh the
no - ble lad a vic - tor's crown has won.
ff



glo - rious lads, vic - to - rious lads and true. Oh the
f
ff
lads, cou - ra - geous lads to dare and do. They have
f
ff
mar - - - - - ca - - - - - to marched with con - quering tread Where Old Glo - ry's folds have led, Oh the
mar - - - - ca - - to Ending for first two verses
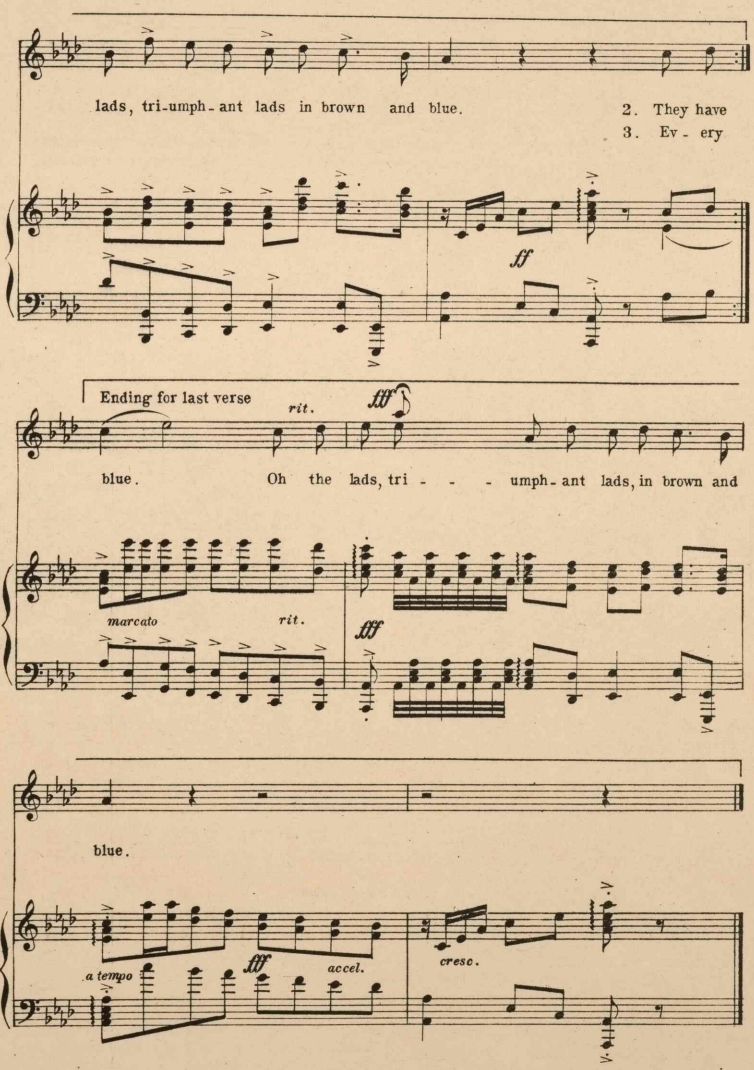
f lads, tri - umph - ant lads in brown and blue: Oh the
f



lads, tri-umph-ant lads in brown and blue.
2. They have
3. Ev-ery
ff
Ending for last verse
rit.
fff
blue.
Oh the lads, tri - - - umph-ant lads, in brown and
marcato
rit.
fff
blue.
a tempo
fff
accel.
cresc.

459168